Vishinsky Rejects U. N. Truce Plan

STATE HOSPITAL MASQUERADE—The annual Halloween masquerade dance at the Lincoln State Hospital Wednesday night saw more than 100 of 300 patients taking part dress up in varied and imaginative costumes. Master-of-ceremonies at the affair which was held in the hospital's auditorium was Nathan Grossman of the Lincoln Post V.F.W. Music was provided by an orchestra of University of Nebraska students and Grey Ladies aided with arrangements. The occupational and recreational therapy departments at the hospital directed making of the costumes. (Star Photo.)

Strong Fire Hazard Warning Is Sounded By Chief Feaster

Lincoln Fire Chief E. P. Feaster issued a strongly worded warning Wednesday against the lighting of bonfires, piles of leaves, or even incinerators during the city's present dry spell.

The Chief's statement was a repeat of a previous warning and request for the city's residents to check with the fire department before starting any kind of fire.

Wednesday afternoon two house fires, involving total damage of $1,000 resulted from a fire in a pile of leaves that was whipped by the wind. Damage was listed at the Ray Schruers garage at 1625 Smith St., and the H. G. Jacoby residence at 1649 Smith St.

Both structures were set aflame by a pile of leaves behind the Schruers' garage that was fired up and then blown about by a gusty wind.

Chief Feaster said that a report made to the city this month showed that to date in October 145 grass and weed fires have been reported to the department. Comparatively, only 303 grass and weed fires were reported for the whole year in 1951.

Fire department officials have consistently requested that people wishing to burn trash, either in the open or in incinerators, request permission from the department which keeps a record of each request. The phone number is: 2-2144.

International Commission To Settle 'Korean Question' Urged

Soviet Foreign Minister Insists War Prisoners Must Be Repatriated

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (INS)—Soviet Foreign Minister Vishinsky rejected in the United Nations Wednesday night America's bid for peace in Korea on U. N. terms as "utterly unsatisfactory." He proposed a commission of belligerents and neutrals to seek a speedy end of the Korean War.

Vishinsky attacked U. S. Secretary of State Acheson's "peace with honor" speech in U. N. last week as constituting primarily an American election maneuver.

VISHINSKY . . . attacks Acheson. (AP Wirephoto Wednesday Night.)

Vishinsky refused to give an inch on the firm U.N. principle of voluntary repatriation of Communist prisoners of war, a dispute which has deadlocked the Panmunjom truce negotiations.

He charged that the United States command conducted all screening in Korea under duress and planned to retain Red prisoners of war by force, in direct violation of international law.

Acheson Unmoved

Acheson indicated his disappointment with the Vishinsky statement by sitting unsmiling and with his hands before him when the Russian finished and bowed to the Iron Curtain applause.

Initial reaction among U.N. observers who followed Vishinsky's three and a half hour statement closely was that without committing Russia to any promise of intervention with Red China for an armistice, the resolution is aimed at seating the Communist nations in the Far East in any possible future conference on the Korean question.

Vishinsky stressed in his speech that the "usual police methods" were responsible for the truce deadlock at Panmunjom.

He said it was ridiculous from beginning to end to claim that 100,000 Communist prisoners refused to be repatriated. He charged that the American command used "brutalities and coercion" to compel the prisoners of war "at gunpoint" to waive their right to return home.

In rejecting Acheson's bid, Vishinsky maintained that it fails to meet any "elementary requirements" for settlement of the Korean war.

Russ Resolution

Vishinsky's resolution said:

"The General Assembly having considered the report of the U.N. Commission on Korea, considers it essential to establish a commission for the peaceful settlement of the Korean question with participation of the parties directly concerned and of other states, including states not participating in the war in Korea; to instruct this commission to take immediate measures for the settlement of the Korean question in the spirit of the unification of Korea, implemented by the Koreans themselves, under the supervision of the above mentioned commission."

Initial reaction to the Vishinsky resolution at U.N. was that it is almost identical to some parts of the Polish resolution submitted to the Assembly last week.

Charge of Politics

The Vishinsky resolution, however, seems to be less definite and specific and apparently is aimed at leaving Soviet intentions wide open to future dvelopments.

The Russian claimed that Acheson pinned the guilt for the Korean war on the Soviet Union solely as an American election maneuver.

The Russian heatedly detailed in his 72-page speech what he called American preparation for staging an attack by the South Koreans on North Korea. He cited a number of visits to the Korean 38th parallel previous to the outbreak of hostilities in 1950 by Dulles and others. He claimed that the final plans were arrived at in secret conferences in South Korea among Gen. Omar N. Bradley, former U.N. Commander Gen. Douglas MacArthur, former U.S. War Secretary Johnson and Dulles.

What Would Ike Do In Korea? HST Asks

President Looses Blast At General, Saying: 'Anyone Who Poses As Superman Is Fraud'

CHICAGO (INS)—President Truman Wednesday night bluntly asked Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower what the GOP presidential nominee will do in Korea if he is elected and makes the trip there as promised.

The President addressed 2,000 persons at a dinner of the American Federation of Labor-Cook County League for Political Action in Chicago's Sherman Hotel.

Earlier, he spoke to 25,000 persons while placing a wreath at a monument for Negro war veterans and was greeted by thousands of homeward bound office workers when he arrived in downtown Chicago.

Stating that if Eisenhower now "poses and talks like a superman" he "is a fraud," the President, speaking in Chicago, asked:

"What will you do when you get there?"

He said that Generals Omar Bradley, chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff; Matthew Ridgway, former commander-in-chief in the Far East; James Van Fleet, Eighth Army commander in Korea; Army Chief of Staff J. Lawton Collins, Mark Clark, now commander-in-chief in the Far East, and Air Chief Hoyt Vandenberg have all been in Korea.

The President said:

"All of them have been in Korea, and none of them found how to bring about what the Republican candidate appears to promise—an early and honorable end to the fighting."

He added:

"And when somebody does suggest that perhaps the answer to Korea lies not in Korea itself, but in the plans of the Kremlin in Moscow, and in the combined and growing defenses of the whole free world—then the Republican candidate handles that by shouting 'appeasement.' Which, of course, it isn't.

'No General Order'

"No general order is going to eliminate our problems."

Mr. Truman, addressing the AFL rally, added:

"No superman is going to solve our difficulties for us. And anybody who poses and talks like a superman is a fraud.

"I state again that I have the gravest apprehensions about the future course of our country if the Republican party is returned to power."

Mr. Truman gave his own formula for solution of the Korean conflict. He said the "right way" is to build more support for the United Nations, to train and equip more Korean troops, and to apply every pressure to bring about an honorable truce. He said the U. S. is now doing, and has been doing, all these things.

Three Possible Ways

Discussing the potentialities of a peaceful settlement in Korea, the President said:

"There are only three possible ways to handle this problem.

"One is to give up, and pull out of Korea. That would be dishonorable and dangerous. It would weaken the alliance of free nations, and endanger our national security. We won't do it.

"The second way to to go on from Korea to a bigger war, attacking China and Russia, expanding the heater of conflict to include Japan, the Pacific, and possibly the whole world. We have rejected that alternative.

"The third way—and the right way—is to build up more support from the United Nations, as we are doing—to train and equip more Korean troops, as we are doing—and to apply every pressure to bring about an honoroble truce, as we are doing. As a nation, we will be able to bring this about if we remain united, and firm in our determination to build up our defenses and see this thing through. This is a hard way to end the Korean conflict, but it is the only way that will not involve us in far greater dangers.

"Now before he knew how easy it was to be a Republican candidate, the General had just as much trouble as the rest of us in finding a quick and easy way to end the Korean conflict. In June of this year he said, 'There is no clean cut solution to the Korean War.'

"But today he has found out the privileges and prerogatives of his new position. Now he can find a solution for anything. Now he can handle the Korean problem easily. Now he says, 'I shall go to Korea. That is my pledge to the American people.'

"As a Republican candidate, that appears to be all he is required to say. Nobody says, 'What will you do when you get there?' Nobody says, 'Are you sure you're that much better than your old colleagues—Gen. Bradley, and Ridgway, and Van Fleet, and Collins, and Clark, and Vandenberg?'

"All of them have been to Korea and none of them found how to bring about what the Republican candidate appears to promise—'an early and honorable end' to the fighting."

First Visit In 62 Years Finds Man 'Confused'

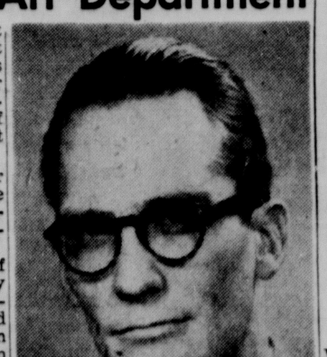

A gentleman got a little mixed up in his directions in Lincoln Wednesday night—he was last here 62 years ago.

Early in the evening police were called to the bus depot to aid an "elderly" man who seemed lost. Eldon Moran of St. Louis, who is only 95½ years old, told Officers William Christline and R. J. McMeen that he wasn't lost—just a bit mixed up.

He explained that the Lincoln he knew had a population of about 20,000 to 25,000 persons. The place had changed a little, he said. He was in Lincoln, he told officers, to visit his sister, Mary L. Foerste, 2127 N.

By the time the police cruiser rolled down N, Moran had recovered his bearings and said the street seemed familiar.

Walter Meigs Selected To Head Connecticut U Art Department

WALTER MEIGS . . . Named head of Connecticut University Art Department.

Walter Meigs, well known artist and assistant professor of art at the University of Nebraska, has been appointed associate professor of art and head of the Art Department at the University of Connecticut, announced President A. N. Jorgensen.

Meigs, who has been a member of the University faculty since 1949, will assume duties at Connecticut second semester in February.

Professor Meigs, a native of New York City, took preliminary training at Lawrenceville Preparatory School, which was followed by work at Fontainebleau from which he received his diploma in 1939. He obtained a B.F.A. degree at Syracuse in 1941 after which he became art director for Hartig and Batista, a New York firm during 1941 and 1942.

He served more than three years during World War II in North Africa, Italy, France and Germany.

After brief professional employment, Meigs resumed academic studies at the University of Iowa from which he received an M.F.A. degree.

His recent exhibitions include work showing in New York at the Downtown Galleries and in the Whitney Museum of American Art. He recently has been included in the Carnegie International Exhibition and has had paintings in the Museum of Modern Art in New York City.

Edith Halbert, director of Downtown Galleries, included Meigs in her selection of nine young artists as the most promising on the basis of present work and future responsibilities.

Meigs is married and the father of two children.

Gas Cost Down To 19.9 Cents In Price War

At least four service stations along Cornhusker Highway were engaged in a full-fledged price War Wednesday night.

Prices were as low as 19.9 cents per gallon for regular and 20.9 for Ethyl. Attendants at two stations, however, said they did not expects prices to go any lower.

The "war" stated in earnest Tuesday morning, when two stations followed the lead of another that had cut prices a few days ago. Wednesday afternoon still another firm joined in the battle.

No one wanted to guess how long prices would stay down.

Early Action In Power Rate Fight Expected

The first official action to force the Nebraska Public Power System to grant cheaper group billing in a new power rate schedule for member cities of the League of Municipalities may be taken early next week.

Representatives of the cities in the League met at Holdrege Wednesday to draw up resolutions to be presented to the League's executive board when it meets at Lincoln Sunday.

At that meeting the board will decide if the League should submit a written request to the System for group billing. That would be the first step.

Court Action

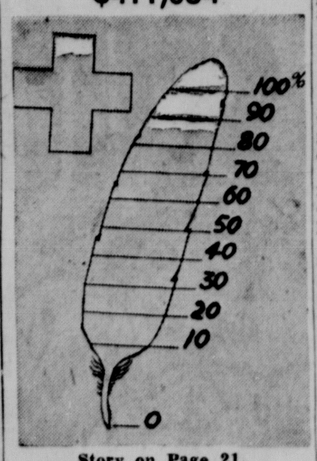

Then if that request is turned down, as is expected, the League would then probably take action leading to a court suit to determine whether or not the League is entitled to the group billing, which comes at the lower, or cheaper, end of the System's sliding rate scale.

The court action by the League would have to be approved by the city councils or village boards of all eight cities involved.

Lincoln's present contract with NPPS expires Jan. 1. The group billing dispute is expected to be either settled or in the courts by that time, and no interruption in the Lincoln power supply is anticipated.

City Attorney C. Russell Mattson and C. E. Beals, League executive secretary and treasurer, attended the Holdrege meeting from Hastings.

EISENHOWER:

Van Fleet 'Backs Up' Ike Stand

General Makes Public Letter Saying More ROKs Should Be Used

NEW YORK (INS)—Gen. Eisenhower made public a letter Wednesday night from Gen. James Van Fleet "backing up" Eisenhower's claim that a number of American troops could have been brought home if South Koreans had been trained "strenuously."

The GOP presidential candidate, winding up a strenuous day of vote hunting in New York, read the United Nations Korean commander's letter during a televized program with 25 Republican governors.

Eisenhower said the letter showed Van Fleet believes that Allied forces should have been "preparing strenuously" during the past for increasing the size of the ROK army.

Double Size

Van Fleet's letter described his efforts to get approval to double the size of the Korean army but said his request for 10 more ROK divisions had been cut to two, and that even that figure had not been officially approved.

The letter read:

"Being unable to get 10 more, I said 'give me six and I would release two U.S. divisions; or give me four and I would release one U.S. division'."

The letter, Eisenhower said, was written Oct. 10 to Maj. Gen. Orlando C. Wood, at Walter Reed Hospital in Washington, D. C.

Eisenhower has stressed during his campaign that South Korean soldiers should be trained to take over the front-line fighting so that United Nations troops could be pulled back to rear areas.

Explore Needs

He said one of the chief objectives of his trip to Korea if he is elected President will be to explore needs of bringing this about.

The Van Fleet letter was given to Eisenhower by Van Fleet's wife, who received a copy from her husband.

The general related his efforts to strengthen the ROK army by improving training systems for officers, and said:

"I have done this on my own responsibility with very little encouragement, and never an approval for any increases."

He expressed confidence that approval would be granted shortly for an increased ceiling on the size of the South Korean Army.

Eisenhower, meanwhile, wound up his strenuous day of vote hunting in New York with a speech to an overflow audience of 3,000 in Lost Battalion Hall in Queens County.

Earlier, Eisenhower said America's armed force should be held as the great mobile reserve of the free world instead of being pinned down in Korea fighting "the real enemy's second team."

The Republican presidential candidate told a Bronx audience of 10,000 that the "true purpose" of U.S. military strength is to provide a mobile reserve and give air and sea support wherever and whenever it is needed against the Communist threat.

Ike needled Democrats for their efforts to get him to run as their party's candidate for president in 1948 in an earlier talk to a crowd of 7,500 in Yonkers.

He told the throng standing in the open under a light swirling snow fall:

"I did not then believe that this worn-out administration deserved another four years lease on the United States and I do not now."

Political Broadcasts

Local radio and TV stations report the following political broadcasts scheduled for Thursday:

Gen. Dwight Eisenhower will speak at 9 p.m., over WOWTV.

Sen. John Sparkman will speak at 8:30 p.m. over KFOR.

At 9:30 p.m., Sen. Richard Nixon will be heard over WOWTV.

STEVENSON:

GOP Talk Hindering War End

Adlai Emphasizes 'No Bartering,' Stand By Shunning Demo Hopeful

PHILADELPHIA (INS)—Gov. Adlai Stevenson charged Wednesday night that Republican "campaign oratory" has given the Communists the idea that they can hold out for "better terms" in Korea.

The Democratic presidential candidate, in a blistering attack before an overflow crowd of 17,000 in Philadelphia's huge Constitution Hall, accused Gen. Eisenhower and other Republicans of a "cynical search for votes" with promises "they cannot keep."

Stevenson promptly coupled the attack with a reiteration of his pledge not to "barter his principles to any politician"—a statement heightened by his refusal earlier in the day to a face-to-face meeting with Pennsylvania's Democratic congressional candidate, Rep. Francis E. Walter.

BIG TURNOUT

Walter is co-author of the nation's new immigration bill which the Illinois governor has denounced as "discriminatory."

Stevenson's Philadelphia speech brought repeated cheers from the enthusiastic turnout which local observers said was the biggest rally Democrats have ever staged in the Quaker City.

Stevenson said the Communists have heard the Republicans say one thing and then another about Korea and have interpreted it as "disunity."

Stevenson's appearance on the stage touched off a three minute, standing ovation.

'Wholly Independent'

Stevenson declared that if he is elected he will go to Washington "wholly independent" and said he has refused in this campaign to "barter his principles to any politician." He said also that "we have not made promises of huge tax cuts."

The governor then turned to Korea and asked, "Has the general changed his views on Korea?"

He read a statement Eisenhower made last June in which the general said "I don't believe in the present situation there is any clear-cut answer to the present Korean War."

Stevenson said: "That was June. He was right in June. Now it's November and now he is making a desperate bid for your support."

Stevenson said the Democrats' position on civil rights and tidelands oil have been the same, both North and South, implying that Ike has spoken one way in Dixie and another way above the Mason-Dixon line.

Share Platform

Walter left with Stevenson's aids a letter outlining his views on the immigration bill he sponsored in conjunction with Democratic Sen. McCarran of Nevada, whom the governor also has disavowed.

The congressman shared a speakers' platform with the Illinois governor at Bethlehem but Stevenson made no mention of him in his speech, and as he walked across the platform, passed within inches of him without speaking.

At Lehighton, Stevenson went out of his way to avoid the congressman who was standing at the rear platform waiting for the candidate to return from a motor trip through the hard coal district where he made talks at Wilkes-Barre and Hazelton.

Stevenson aids hustled the governor to the other door of his private car.

Car Shortage End Sought At Meeting Here

An answer to the current shortage of railroad boxcars was sought Wednesday night when representatives of railroads, the State Railway Commission and southeast Nebraska grain elevator operators met at the Cornhusker Hotel.

Howard W. Elm, secretary of the Nebraska Grain and Feed Dealers Association, said reports of the meeting would be compiled and a request forwarded to the Interstate Commerce Commission asking for more boxcars.

200 Per Day

Elm speculated that the ICC would be asked for an order specifying that at least "a couple hundred more boxcars per day be sent into southeast Nebraska to ease the situation."

"The car shortage isn't slacking up," Elm noted. "We've had one report that one elevator operator has over 500,000 bushels of shelled corn scattered out on the ground."

Also meeting with the group was Mark Pickell, representative for a Chicago crop and marketing service. Pickell is touring the Midwest, seeking crop and production information, marketing trends and observing the critical wheat situation.

China Women Fighting On Front, Reds Admit

TOKYO (Thursday) (INS)—The Peiping radio today admitted that Chinese women were fighting on the Korean war front.

The admission came in a quoted statement of North Korean Premier Kim Il Sung who was reported to have said:

U.N. Troops Are Shoved From Ridge

Chinese Reach Sniper Crest Through Tunnels

SEOUL (AP) — Chinese Reds moving to the bloody crest through deep tunnels Thursday knocked Allied troops off the top of strategic Sniper Ridge on the Korean Central Front.

AP Correspondent John Randolph reported from the front that more than 1,000 Chinese stormed the crest and broke up an Allied counter attack.

They drove the Allied infantrymen down the south slope toward United Nations lines.

However, Allied troops were storming back shortly before noon. There was no up-to-the-minute report as to how that counter thrust was faring.

An estimated 1,000 freshened Reds joined the continuing battle after rebuilding a tunnel system leading to the hill from The Yoke-Y-shaped terrain to the north of Sniper Ridge.

Wednesday's fighting raged at hand grenade range. It continued throughout the night, the wild battle obscured by darkness and smoke. Big guns on both sides poured in thousands of rounds of artillery and mortar fire. It was the 17th day of battle for the strategic ridge.

Fire Threat Is Reduced By Moisture

Some Gains Made; Precipitation Scanty

By The Associated Press

Fire fighters—some getting an assist from the weather—gained a little ground Wednesday in their battle against the worst forest and brush fires in years in the Eastern half of the nation.

Light snow fell from the Great Lakes area eastward into New England and a cold snap laid a coat of frost on powder-dry brush and forests in the Central areas of the nation.

This scanty moisture eased the threat of new fire outbreaks as reports from several states showed that fire fighters are getting the upper hand.

130 Fires Out

In hard-hit Arkansas, state Forrester Fred Lang said 130 fires that burned out 19,176 acres of timber and fields were extinguished Tuesday.

As much as four inches of snow fell in Vermont, New Hampshire, and Western Maine. Some two inches of snow fell in West Virginia.

NU Theater Season Is Opened By 'In The Round' Production

By MARILYN KIRKEBY
Starr Staff Writer

A tense drama with overtones of comedy opened the University of Nebraska theater season Wednesday. The play, "Outward Bound," will run through Saturday, Nov. 8.

"Outward Bound" tells a supernatural tale of seven persons who believe they are casual passengers on an ocean liner. As the play progresses, the passengers discover they are dead and are on their way to their judgment.

Wes Jensby, a senior, walked off with the acting honors of the evening with his portrayal of a weak-willed, quick-witted drunkard. Undoubtedly Jensby's finest scene was the one in which he first realized that he, and the other passengers, were all dead.

Character Roles

Ellie Guilliatt, as a cockney charwoman, and Marion Uhe, as a supercilious English lady, played difficult character roles in a manner near perfection. Miss Uhe's actions, however, may have been at times too broad, even overacted.

The romantic interest was supplied by Lynne Morgan and Illar Sirk. Both did competent jobs in their first appearances in the University theatre.

Others in the cast, each of whom turned in a credible performance, included the following:

Dick Marrs ..... the steward
Ken Clement ..... a minister
Al Hazelwood ..... a British businessman
Jack Babcock ..... the "examiner"

"Outward Bound" was presented in the arena fashion. In this type of presentation, the audience is seated completely around the stage which is on the same level as the first row of seats. Although this means that the audience's view of the stage is sometimes blocked by the back of a character, "theater in the round" gives the audience a feeling of close kinship with the actors.

Scottsbluff Man Dies In Accident

CENTRAL CITY (AP)—Louis F. Laudenschlager, 64, was killed about 5:15 p.m. Wednesday when his auto overturned 2½ miles west of Clarks, Neb.

County Attorney Stanley Torpin said Laudenschlager was going east on Highway 30 and apparently intended to turn on to Highway 30A but made the turn too late.

The attorney said the car apparently was traveling at a high rate of speed. It hit a sign, went out of control and overturned. Laudenschlager was thrown out.

The Scottsbluff man was alone in the car.

The death was Nebraska's 285th traffic death of the year compared to 270 on Oct. 29, 1951.

Nixon Asked Help For Fund Head

State Department Aid Sought In Cuba Case

From Press Dispatches

WASHINGTON—The State Department said Wednesday that Sen. Richard Nixon, the Republican vice presidential candidate, wrote the U. S. Embassy at Havana last August asking help for Dana C. Smith, Pasadena attorney, in meeting a threatened law suit over a Havana night club gambling debt.

Smith was trustee of the $18,168 fund raised by California friends of Nixon to help the senator defray political expenses.

The State Department gave reporters a written statement on the Havana matter in response to individual inquiries. An official said the first inquiry came from the Sacramento (Calif.) Bee.

Answer In Court

The department said Smith wrote the embassy that "a collection agency and attorney had threatened suit on a check he had given in payment of his gambling losses, on which he had stopped payment; this information later appeared in the press.

"Mr. Smith's letter was transmitted under cover of a letter from Sen. Nixon in which the senator stated that he would appreciate anything which the embassy might be able to do to assist Mr. Smith in his problem. . . ."

Asked for comment on the matter, Smith said in California today: "I don't want to try this anywhere but in court—I'll answer everything in court."

Nixon could not be reached immediately for comment.

Payment Refused

The Bee said it learned Nixon's intercession was made after he had been nominated for vice president on the Republican ticket in Chicago.

The Bee quoted George E. Stoddard, counsel for a Los Angeles credit agency, as saying that when Smith's check was presented to the First Trust and Savings Bank of Pasadena payment was refused.

This was the second reported incident of Smith seeking Sen. Nixon's aid. Several weeks ago it was reported Smith asked Nixon's help in connection with a tax refund claim of between $500,000 and $600,000.

Judge Delehant In 'Good' Condition

The condition of Federal Judge John Delehant, who underwent surgery at the Mayo Clinic, Rochester, Minn., was described as good Wednesday.

He is "resting comfortably" at St. Mary's Hospital, according to authorities.

Judge Delehant underwent surgery last Friday after an exploratory operation disclosed two small blood clots along the optic nerve. He is reported improving daily, but the length of time he will remain in the hospital is not known.

Mrs. Delehant is remaining there with him.

Two sons, Maurice, Lincoln, and John Delehant Jr., Omaha, have returned to their homes.

Arlen Pleads Not Guilty To Escape Charge

Jack Arlen, 38, pleaded not guilty in District Court Wednesday to a charge of escape from prison.

District Judge John L. Polk set Arlen's trial for the next jury panel Nov. 17. Appearance bond was set at $2,000.

When arraigned Saturday in County Court, Arlen pleaded guilty to the escape charge. At that time, he was bound over to District Court.

John McArthur, Arlen's attorney, said he did not know what defense Arlen would offer.

Six-Month Sentence

According to Sheriff Merle Karnopp, Arlen, serving a six months' sentence for possession of obscene photographs with intent to sell or give away, and Charles W. Moberg, charged with statutory rape, dug their way out of the jail sometime Thursday night or early Friday morning. Arlen was recaptured Friday in Omaha.

A complaint against Arlen has been filed in York charging Arlen with assault with intent to murder. Arlen has been accused of shooting Mrs. Sally Powell in York after the escape from the Lancaster jail. Mrs. Powell was shot in the head and forearm. She is expected to live.

Arlen will face the York charge after the escape charge in Lancaster County has been decided.

Sheriff Karnopp sent Arlen to the State Penitentiary for safekeeping until the time of the trial.

Airing Of Grievances Promised

Three Hostages Are Freed; 7 Still Held

CHESTER, Ill. (AP) — Rebelling convicts at Menard State Prison considered Wednesday night freeing their last seven hostages on the promise of a public airing of their grievances before Acting Gov. Sherwood Dixon.

The 332 convicts in the east cell house sent a delegation to talk with Dixon in the presence of newsmen soon after 38 psychiatric prisoners had released the other three hostages unharmed on a promise Dixon would hear their grievances.

Dixon told the convict delegation:

"As soon as you restore order and release the seven guards I will sit down with you and hear every grievance."

After a 45 minute conference the convicts, four white men and four Negroes, carried the word of Dixon back to the others in the east cell house where the rebellion began Monday.

Some of the prison officials accompanied the convict committee back to the cell house.

Wrangling immediately broke out between the committee and the other convicts.

Met Is Considering Televising Operas To Paid Audiences

NEW YORK (AP)—The Metropolitan Opera Company is considering plans to pipe its productions by television to paid audiences in cities across the nation, it was disclosed Wednesday.

The scheme is being conceived not only to widen the country's operatic audience but to bolster the Met's chronically precarious financial condition.

New School Stop Signs Are Going Out Monday

OFFICIALS EXAMINE NEW SCHOOL STOP SIGNS — Ninety-six of these octagonal, carryout-type school crossing stop signs will replace next Monday the rectangle signs currently being used. Examining one of the new signs is Capt. C. C. Hurd, Traffic Safety and Education department (left), while school officials—Lloyd C. Jenkins, Coordinator of First Aid and Safety (center), and Ralph H. Park, Assistant Superintendent of Operation and Maintenance—look on. (Star Photo.)

The excuses of Lincoln motorists—beginning Monday—for overlooking school crossing stop signs will become even more feeble when 96 octagonal, carryout-type signs replace the old rectangle signs near the city's elementary schools.

These new signs, purchased by the Board of Education, are believed to be the most effective school stop sign. The octagonal shape is standard for stop signs across the nation.

The only elementary school which will not get the new signs is Capitol School, where a permanent sign is located. Lloyd C. Jenkins, co-ordinator of First Aid and Safety, said the change is not being made for further experimental purposes, adding that permanent signs will not be replaced, at least for the time being.

More Effective

School officials decided to replace the rectangle signs by the uniform octagonal sign when studies conducted in co-operation with the Lincoln Traffic Department revealed the carryout-type sign to be more effective than the electrical, flasher-type sign and the octagonal shape more effective than rectangle.

Capt. Clinton Hurd of the traffic department, said the American driver is "a victim of habit." School stop violations are the highest at the opening of school but drop off during the school year.

He said there were 101 fines paid for school stop violations in September. The figure is expected to drop to between 40 and 60 after the first couple of months.

He warned motorists that the penalty for school stop violations is $5 as compared to $1 for ordinary stop signs.

Gleeson's Death 'Irreparable Loss'

WAHOO, Neb.—Funeral services for William Thomas Gleeson, 49, who died suddenly Monday of a heart attack, were held at the First Presbyterian Church here Wednesday. Rev. E. J. Nickerson officiated.

A large delegation of friends from the statehouse attended the services for the former deputy attorney general as well as representatives of the state bar association.

The out-of-town friends plus those from his home town and other parts of the county which he had served as county attorney filled the church and basement where loud speakers were installed. Rev. Nickerson eulogized his integrity and devotion to work and friends and the esteem in which he was held by all those who knew him.

"His death was an irreparable loss to both his home community and the state," he said.

Price War Continues Among Omaha Stations

OMAHA (INS)—Three weeks of price cutting among most of Omaha's service stations continues, with the price of regular gasoline down to 22.9 cents a gallon at some outlets.

However, most stations appeared to be holding the line at 24.9 cents a gallon, or two cents under the normal price.

The price-cutting spree began among stations along the main highway routes earlier this month and spread gradually to most of the other stations.

Let's Stick To The Record

Out at Imperial in southwest Nebraska, Farmer Herbert Hughes Wednesday issued a grim warning to his fellow Nebraskans and to other farmers in the American Midlands.

He said that in these closing days of a presidential campaign, the Democrats were resorting to trickery by conducting a whispering campaign to the effect that "Republicans will reduce agricultural income by canceling farm supports . . ."

Mr. Hughes, the press dispatches indicate, holds the impressive post of chairman of the United States Farm Council. He also served as Nebraska's representative on the platform committee at the Republican National Convention in Chicago in July. It was Mr. Hughes who came to Gen. Eisenhower's rescue during a meeting between the Republican nominee and the Nebraska delegation when a short question-and-answer session was in progress.

Whispers In The Wind

Mr. Hughes is correct when he says there are "whispers" reaching the farm homes of every section of Nebraska—not only Nebraska but all of Nebraska's neighbors—every state in the corn belt—nearly every state east of the Rocky Mountains from the Gulf of Mexico to the Canadian border.

Those whispers are not those of human voices. They are the whispers raised by the specter of drought. They are the whispers which days and weeks of cloudless skies, a lack of moisture, an absence of gentle rain, a parched, tormented soil invariably raise. In the very simplest, the most understandable language, a great many people out on the farms, strengthened by years of abundant crops and profitable farm commodity prices, had been lulled into the belief that it was time for a change. Now they are not so sure. Why? Simply because, in the inherent honesty of rural thinking, they realize that the only genuine, effective farm program they have ever known in their lifetimes was given by a Democratic administration, and in the years since its birth has been preserved by a Democratic administration. That is the record which no amount of talk can twist or distort.

Mr. Hughes knows this. He lives in a region in Nebraska where the lack of moisture put in an appearance weeks before other better-watered areas in this state and in surrounding states came face to face with drought. He knows that it has been dry in parts of the Republican Valley longer than in other sections of Nebraska. We repeat that the whispers to which Mr. Hughes refers are not put in circulation by human voices but are the echoes of the intelligence of a thoughtful people interested first of all in a happy, prosperous nation resting upon the foundation of a sound agriculture.

That Cloudless Sky

There was not a "financial cloud" in the sky when the Republican National Convention selected its candidate in early July. Nebraska had harvested the biggest wheat crop in 85 years of statehood. Nebraska's corn crop was a humdinger. Most of Nebraska's small grains yielded well. Nebraska's hay crop was a peach, and the fact that it was so splendid explains at this time why Nebraska may escape the experience of importing hay to maintain her livestock—after furnishing huge quantities of hay earlier in the summer and fall to drought-plagued areas of the Southwest and the Deep South.

That Republican farm plank, stripped of the customary verbage of political planks, pledged the farmer continuance of the program of farm commodity support prices at 90 per cent of parity—significantly, "at the market places"—whatever that may mean. It could mean that the platform-drafters were attempting to be different. It could mean, interpreted by the reactionary Republican group, which will dominate Congress, 90 per cent of parity at terminal marketing points—not out on the farm. It will mean only whatever a Republican Congress, if a victory for Gen. Eisenhower means a Republican Congress, says that it means. That is all that it does mean — nothing more and nothing less. It stands against a known record that does not require legislative definition — one that has been in actual operation for more than 15 years. That issue does trouble the farmer—the farmer's wife —the farm family—and the "whispers" to which Mr. Hughes refers do not come from politicians on either side but arise from a soul-searching experience through which thousands of midwestern farmers are now passing.

Just A Matter Of Trust

The farmer is asked in this cry for a change to place his faith in the Republican party to handle the farm program. Many farmers gave rapt attention to that cry when the crop outlook was good, farm commodity prices reasonably high. It is in times of trouble that his Republican faith becomes chilled. His faith is shaken whenever he recalls his experiences during the last Republican administration.

Now he finds the GOP platform promising him 90 per cent of parity at the market places. He hears the GOP candidate going the platform one better at Kasson, Minnesota, with a promise of 100 per cent parity, including perishable crops. He recalls that the last Republican Congress—the 80th Congress — under almost the same identical leadership that a new Republican Congress would have, took a dim view of the farm program—stripped the farmer of crop insurance, through a slick shenanigan deprived him of adequate grain storage facilities, but more important at no time and under no circumstances has that leadership turned a friendly face towards supplying the farmer with cheap credit. Even more, that farmer who is thinking recalls that last July, an industrial and financial leadership dominated the deliberations of the Chicago convention.

These Healing Years

Actually we prosper together in this country. What happens out on the farm reflects itself on the streets of the cities and towns. And what happens in those cities and towns also is of concern to those out on the farms. Sen. Taft was right, everlastingly right, when in Iowa he told an audience that the Democrats did not invent agriculture. What Sen. Taft failed to say was that his own party—indifferent and slap-happy in those roaring 'twenties—nearly ruined agriculture through the blindness and stupidity of a top-heavy industrial-financial leadership which in those years failed to see even to the end of its own nose.

Those same elements were back there in Chicago last July feverishly active. The lesson we could have hoped they had learned either was forgotten or pushed out of their minds. Drought in all of its ugliness, its misery and its frustrated hopes, invites thinking. Within these recent days, with dust blowing, with seed failing to germinate in the fields of winter wheat, with that which does take root, thin, the farmer will want to think about into whose hands he should place the farm program during the next four years. He and his family know full well that it has been their lot to enjoy some magnificent, healing years. He knows that when he needed it, an effective farm program was there to lift him to his feet.

Better Rural America

All of this progress out on the farm in the last 15 years—new homes, new barns, other farm improvements, new machinery, the blessing of electricity, new furnishings for the home—has contributed to a richer, more satisfactory farm life.

It is a part of the American story. We do not charge that Gen. Dwight Eisenhower would set about deliberately to wreck American rural life. Such a charge is silly. We do not suggest that this industrial leadership or the financiers plot and plan to wreck American rural life. That is silly. But we do know and the farmers know that in their limited horizons, they did neglect agriculture until rural America came upon evil days—days accentuated first by an economic storm which swept the entire country —and next by a severe drought that affected the entire agricultural establishment in this country.

Those are the "whispers" which are being heard. And why not? Why should any farmer, even those farmers who had made up their minds earlier how to vote, as day after day unfolding adds to the threat of a drought, neglect to ask himself: "In whom may I place trust when it comes to an effective farm program?"

Job Of Removing Leaves

By common agreement, we take it, the people of Lincoln will put it down on the line that the streets in the residential sections are pretty messy.

Gutters are filled to overflowing with dead leaves.

There may be individual instances where property owners have raked the leaves from the space between the sidewalk to the street curb into the gutter, but those cases are few relatively, and there is not much difference between gutters where this has happened and those where the deposits merely represent the natural fall.

We couldn't stand prosperity, apparently. A year ago out of the fullness of its heart, the council gave Street Commissioner Lynn Myers authorization and money to clean up the litter from Lincoln's tree-lined residential sections. That may have been thanks for a vote of approval for $400,000 additional revenue for city government. This year, we understand, money is not available, necessary equipment is lacking, and other reasons which sound good to the council have been advanced.

It is up to the property owner. He does not own the street in front of his property but apparently is expected to take care of it when it comes to hauling away dead leaves.

Time may be running out on him.

It will be a mess unless the streets are cleaned before the first snowfall or the first accumulation of ice.

Long-Leggety Beasties

Although the festival of Hallowe'en has a religious meaning, the pagan rites of the ancient Druids play an even more prominent part in the modern celebration. Most historians are agreed that the customs now followed in the American observance of Hallowe'en date back to the arrival of early settlers from Ireland.

The pumpkin and the corn shock, so much a part of the present-day observance, are symbols of the harvest, the completion of which the Celtics regarded as the end of the year. Sorcerers and soothsayers had a grand time predicting the future on Oct. 31, and fairies, goblins and witches were supposed to have run rampant.

Now it has become a night of "tricks and treats," although goblins with pranks in mind still roam the streets on this night of the year. The Welsh had a word for it. Beware on Hallowe'en, a poem warns, of "ghoulies and ghosties, long leggety beasties, and things that go bump in the night."

Way Over The Limit

The Republicans are charging that the Democrats are using a "slander a day" campaign, thereby forgetting all about the GOP's well-known slanderer-in-chief, Sen. McCarthy. The junior senator from Wisconsin, however, has never limited himself to any daily quota.

Nixon's Record Leaves Unanswered Questions

WASHINGTON — Walter Winchell has just made public affidavits alleging that Harry S. Truman was a member of the Ku Klux Klan in 1922. Most significant thing about these affidavits is that they were obtained in October, 1944, when Harry S. Truman was running for vice president.

However, they were not published by Winchell at that time. If so, the voters would have had an opportunity to pass on their validity when they could have influenced an election, not eight years later when the question of Truman's early background is purely academic.

Various editors have complained since 1944 that the press did not properly report on many other activities of the man then running for vice president, now the President. They argued that the job of vice president can be just as important as that of President, and that Veeps are usually unknown men, picked by a handful of party bosses during the hasty closing days of a convention.

In view of this, and in view of the fact that Sen. Nixon was not only handpicked but relatively unknown either to Eisenhower or to the public, here are more little-known facts in the record of a man who could be President.

First, let it be said that Sen. Nixon has been approached for comment on these facts, but has not made himself available. His press-relations officer has stated not only to this column but repeatedly to the press that Nixon will not answer further questions on his finances nor publish his tax returns. He has refused to hold press conferences.

☆ ☆ ☆

1—Loan from war contractor—During the closing days of the war, Nixon, an attorney in the Navy, was given the job of renegotiating the contract of Erco, at Riverdale, Md. This was an assignment which could mean money saved for the taxpayers. The renegotiating officer sat as virtual judge and jury, empowered to decide on a rebate to the government or a rebate to the contractor.

While renegotiating the Erco contract, Nixon let drop the fact that he wanted to go back to California to run for Congress and borrowed money from Erco to pay his expenses home. Later he repaid the money. It may have been purely coincidental, but Erco received a refund from the government on its war work.

2—Office expenses—In making his radio report to the nation, Nixon stated that he had used his $18,000 expense fund to pay office and travel expenses, thus saving the taxpayers money.

Despite this, the senator claimed $1,294.05 in deductible office expenses in 1951 beyond his $2,500 tax-free allowance. Part of this was a claim of $600 for taking constituents to lunch.

In 1950 he also claimed a deduction of $1,471 for office expenses, part of which was $260 for constituents' lunches.

Yet the Price, Waterhouse audit of his $18,000 expense fund for the same years listed "meetings and luncheons at California hotels, $410," also "meals, taxicab fares and parking charges paid for visitors, $382.52."

☆ ☆ ☆

3—Tax Exemption — In March, 1951, Mrs. Nixon filed on behalf of herself and husband a sworn statement in California that their joint property did not exceed $10,000. This was to enable them to take advantage of a California tax reduction whereby a veteran in reduced circumstances is given a tax exemption of about $50.

In July of that same year, Nixon purchased his $41,000 house in Washington, making a down payment of $20,000.

If he lacked $10,000 in March, 1951, where did he get the $20,000 in July? This is a question the public has a right to ask of any candidate for office.

4—Veterans record — The best way to judge a senator's record is by his work on committees. Nixon belongs to the Labor and Public Welfare Committee, an important group because it handles the Taft-Hartley Act, labor legislation, health, education.

Out of 18 full committee meetings during the last session, however, Nixon attended only four.

He is also a member of the Subcommittee on Veterans Affairs, which investigated the veterans' medical care program, found it bogged down and inadequate. Thanks to painstaking work by this committee, the veterans' medical care program was completely reorganized and revitalized.

However, this was done with no thanks to Nixon. Though a member of the American Legion and publicly active at veterans' rallies, he had the worst attendance record of any member of the subcommittee. When real work for veterans was being done, Nixon wasn't around.

5—Record on civil rights—Nixon has been making many recent speeches on civil rights, has urged the end of segregation in the District of Columbia. Yet as a member of the Senate Labor Committee he was one of only three senators who voted to keep the civil rights bill bottled up in committee.

In other words, he did not even want the civil rights bill to go to the Senate floor for free and open debate, but to remain gathering dust instead, inside the committee. Other senators voted the bill out over his head.

6—Gambling intervention—Nixon stated, in explaining his $18,000 expense fund, that he had asked no government favors for those contributing to it. However, he wrote a letter to the American ambassador in Cuba asking aid for Dana Smith, the man who collected the $18,000 and who had reneged on a gambling debt in Cuba.

MARQUIS CHILDS

Election Unpredictable In Vital Empire State

NEW YORK—In the swirl and rush and fury of this fantastic city, the fateful decision in all probability will be made. That is what the managers of both Gov. Stevenson and Gen. Eisenhower believe as they concentrate on every weapon in the technique of mass politics and mass advertising to win New York's 45 electoral votes.

It could go either way. Both sides frankly acknowledge that. And with it could go the grand prize of the presidency.

The vote in New York state may be as high as 7,000,000. This will be divided roughly between the city and the upstate vote. All indications are that Eisenhower's percentage of the vote upstate will be greater than that of Gov. Thomas E. Dewey who carried New York four years ago by fewer than a hundred thousand votes out of roughly 6,000,000.

☆ ☆ ☆

According to some experienced estimators, Stevenson will therefore have to roll up a majority of at least 650,000 in the city. If the enthusiasm of the crowds that turned out for him are any indication, then he may do it. His reception on his arrival in Harlem had the kind of wild enthusiasm that FDR used to stir back in the 'thirties. Although it was late at night, an estimated 125,000 people turned out to cheer the candidate.

There are, however, areas of doubt. One is with respect to the Puerto Rican vote. In recent years Puerto Ricans have come into the city in large numbers. They need no passports or visas to move from their overcrowded island to the slightly less overcrowded city. Here they live in sub-standard housing, which may nevertheless be a cut above what they had.

Four years ago the Puerto Ricans boiled up for Henry Wallace and his Progressive party. That was not just pie in the sky; it was a beautiful, steam-heated, air-conditioned heaven. Wallace got more than 400,000 votes in the city and nearly 100,000 upstate.

The question this time is whether these voters will feel sufficient self-interest to go to the polls. What Stevenson offers is so much less than heaven with bebop piped in.

☆ ☆ ☆

One of the interesting question marks is the liberal party. Liberal party leaders, including Chairman Adolf A. Berle Jr., are working like beavers to provide what they believe could be the margin of victory for Stevenson. Their efforts are concentrated on last-minute switches of so-called independent voters who have been thinking until quite recently that it was time for a change of party in Washington.

It is here that Sen. Joseph McCarthy could be a decisive influence. If his method of attack repels enough of these thoughtful voters, it might mean the 50,000 or 60,000 margin for the huge majority that must be rolled up in the city. The McCarthy performance was paid for by Gen. Robert A. Wood of Sears, Roebuck and those who think like him, with no assistance from either the Republican National Committee or the Eisenhower campaign managers. But the strategy here is to stress Eisenhower's Midwestern utterances when he endorsed McCarthy, Sen. William Jenner of Indiana and the whole Republican "team."

Here, too, one comes up against the sleazy, politics-as-usual Democratic machine in New York. This machine put over as the senatorial candidate a routine product of Brooklyn and bossism, John Cashmore. The liberal party could not take this and nominated their own candidate, Prof. George S. Counts of Columbia University. The goal of the liberals is 400,000 to 500,000 votes for Stevenson and Counts, which would insure Cashmore's defeat before the able Republican incumbent, Sen. Irving Ives.

The Republicans are aiming their strategy at two groups—the new voters and the newly middle-class voters. By all the rules, the latter should have shifted their politics from Democrat to Republican when they moved from crowded Manhattan wards to the vast acres of small suburban houses in the borough of Queens and on Long Island. Whether they have changed in substantial numbers to the GOP again, no one knows. But it is on this possibility that GOP hopes for carrying New York state are, in part, based.

One of the remarkable things in watching this windup in the great metropolitan centers of the East is to see the change in Eisenhower himself. He has adapted himself to the technique of campaigning. What he says comes out with far more confidence and assurance. He still is sometimes hesitant and uncertain in reading long prepared speeches. But Eisenhower, the general, has become Eisenhower, the campaigner. It is part of the transformation worked with amazing swiftness since that day last summer when his plane from Paris first touched down on American soil.

Lincoln Elks Provide Flags For Polling Places

(Star Photo)

By VIRGIL FALLOON
Star Staff Writer

"The election booth is the very essence of our government," believes Election Commissioner Harold L. Gillett. "A more appropriate place than the polls could not be found for the display of the American flag."

The Lincoln Elks quickly agreed with Gillett and purchased an American flag for 75 of Lincoln's 96 polling places which have not had flags displayed.

The American Legion Auxiliary No. 3 of Lincoln volunteered to place and retire the donated flags at these polling places each election day. The unit will preserve the flags between elections.

☆ ☆ ☆

Ralph Connell, Elks secretary, said the Lincoln club was very glad to receive Gillett's suggestion. He said the purchase amounted to $135.

Gillette said that 21 city polling places had flags available or displayed. They include schools, fire stations, and churches.

His suggestion to the Elks did not include 36 other polling places in Lancaster County because many of these already have flags and because of the difficulty of placing flags at more distant places.

If any county polls do not have flags, Gillett expects other organizations will provide them. Pointing out that the flag is displayed on national holidays, Gillett declared that "election day and polling places should be equally important, if not more so."

The Elks presented the flags to Gillett at a brief ceremony this week in the election commissioner's office. Present were Exalted Ruler Graden Rathbun of the Lincoln Elks Club; Mrs. Ernest Lamb, Americanism chairman of the American Legion Auxiliary Unit No. 3, and Ralph Connell, Elks secretary.

Who Tied Whom?

Lincoln, Neb.

To the editor of The Lincoln Star: Seems as though someone had conceded defeat before the game was played. In big, bold letters on the sports page of Sunday's paper, it said: "Huskers Tie Buffs." Yet with less than two minutes left, Colorado scored to gain a tie with Nebraska. Since Nebraska outdowned and outyarded and outscored Colorado up to this point, who tied whom? Seems to me Colorado was the one fortunate enough to gain and tie.

New England Trend

New Haven, Conn.

To the editor of The Lincoln Star: Many there are in old New England who confidently believe that Adlai Stevenson's brilliancy and independence of mind, his background in academic and legal training, his experience in statesmanship and in the office of governor well qualify him to lead this nation in its struggle to promote greater humanity at home and abroad. Despite the obvious advantage in asking us to greet a military hero, many of us have enough faith in the everyday intelligence of Mr. Stevenson to believe that the people will vote for the good of the greater number as against the privileged few.

Many of us know that a twice-repudiated Dewey and a very ignobly Republican - repudiated Taft will bring the cold shivers of fear and want and depression back upon us; for, although Ike may boast that he has made no "deals," they have made the deals for him. These two, with McCarthy, Jenner and other opponents of every measure of prosperity, have led Ike into a barbed-wire concentration camp of isolated power of wealth.

Even old New England is emerging from her rock-ribs. The youth of America learn readily the great lessons of a Christian democracy. Once they vote, they vote intelligently. Here, the voting ones have volunteered for Stevenson.

Praise For Acheson

Milburn, Neb.

To the editor of The Lincoln Star: Anyone who reads with an open mind can see that Dean Acheson is head and shoulders above all his critics. We would scarcely find a better secretary of state. He has been a great leader in the United Nations, the only hope for world peace, and one which the Republicans wish to destroy. Isolation is a very gloomy, backward looking dream of die-hard reactionaries.

STEVE DAILY

The Same Club

Alexandria, Neb.

To the editor of The Lincoln Star: Stevenson says Ike cannot end the war by making a trip to Korea because the source of that war is not in Korea but in Moscow. How true that is! But does Stevenson realize that in making this truthful criticism, he hits Mr. Truman with the same club? Just as Ike can never stop the war by going to Korea, so Truman never had a chance to win the war against the men in Moscow by fighting someone else in Korea. Why did he thus commit our military forces to fight there?

RICHARD DILL

Love Of Money

Anselmo, Neb.

To the editor of The Lincoln Star: Every candidate is promising to save money. I suppose that appeals to everyone. We could probably save money by letting our soil wash or blow away; save money by not providing pure water for our cities. If we had plenty of money and there was not food enough for all, the people who owned the food would be the richest.

Some say we should get out of debt, but what would happen if everyone paid his debts and borrowed no more money? Is it money wasted to develop natural resources, provide cheaper power, educate our children? The love of money could ruin us.

Fate Of Drought-Hit Wheat Fields In State Remains Unknown

With the winter wheat in Nebraska well into the "critical" stage caused by lack of moisture the actual amount of wheat acreage will probably be under earlier predictions. But just how much no one can say today.

Throughout the state fields drilled to wheat are lying barren with at best a doubtful stand on non-summerfallowed ground. Fields seeded on summerfallowed ground look better and could make good stands if rain fell within a week.

K. E. Logan, a staff member of the State-Federal Bureau of Agricultural Statistics office in Lincoln, said no report on either wheat acreages or expected yields would be forthcoming for sometime. The office had no information to show just how much, if any, the dry season has caused a reduction in wheat acreage.

From Clay Center, County Agent Don Flory told The Star that the dry season reduced wheat planting in Clay County by "no more than five per cent."

Kimball County Agent Chet Wilters said the drought had not affected acreages in that section because most wheat was seeded early—late in August—when the extent of the dry conditions was unknown.

Unless there is a good rain in the next couple of weeks, chances are slim for even fair yields from most of Nebraska's wheat crop, University of Nebraska crop experts said.

They pointed out that there has been no appreciable rain in most of Nebraska's wheat growing areas since Sept. 1. And A. E. Anderson, state-federal statistician, said there is no moisture in the first six inches of soil except in some of the south-eastern counties bordering the Missouri River and in the Panhandle. Approximately two-thirds of the wheat planted in Nebraska this year, he said, was drilled in dry soil.

LUTHERAN SPEAKER—Rev. C. Birkner of Ft. Wayne, Ind. (above) will deliver an address at the biennial convention of the Southern Nebraska District of the Lutheran Women's Missionary League at Hastings, Neb., Thursday.

State Briefs: Albion Girl Heads State Methodist Youth

COZAD — (INS) — Donna Wilson of Albion is the new president of the Nebraska Methodist Youth fellowship. She was chosen at the group's fall conference in Cozad. Other officers named were Bethel Frandson of St. Paul, vice president; and Marjorie Heath, Geneva, secretary-treasurer. Mrs. Mae Sigler of Lincoln was chosen conference youth director.

ALLIANCE (AP) — City Clerk Fred Notson announced that Alliance registration totals 3,662—2,066 Republicans, 1,506 Democrats and 91 nonpartisan. He has previously estimated the total at 3,700.

POLK (AP) — Polk mothers who want to leave their children at home while they go to the polls next Tuesday may call on Polk 4-H Club girls who are offering their services as election day baby sitters.

OMAHA (AP) — Liaison officers of the Civil Air Patrol's North Central Region Wing held a conference in Omaha Wednesday. Here for the meeting was Air Force Col. Miles S. Savage, Washington, acting commander of the CAP.

SIDNEY (AP) — The $435,000 Sidney hotel project has received an allotment of scarce materials from the national Production Authority. The actual construction of the building will not get under way until spring although digging of the basement may be completed this fall.

FREMONT (AP)—Grant M. Coover, 43, of Herrin, Ill., has been named to the newly created post of assistant to the publisher of the Fremont Guide and Tribune. A native of Iowa, Coover has been in the newspaper business for more than 20 years.

McCOOK (AP) — Ellis Armstrong, chief engineer at the Trenton Dam, said bids for construction and remodeling of the Bureau of Reclamation headquarters at McCook have been rejected. He said there was inadequate competition, bids were too high and plans and specifications were inadequate. Armstrong said he will readvertise bids in January, simplifying plans and specifications and postponing the completion date of the project from April until September, 1953.

HUBBELL — Past district commanders of the American Legion and past district presidents of the American Legion Auxiliary for the 11th Legion district were entertained at a dinner at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Conklin at Hubbell. There were 22 in attendance including special guests, R. C. Patterson, department adjutant of the Legion, and Mrs. Genie McGlasson, department hospital and rehabilitation chairman for the Auxiliary, both of Lincoln.

FACTS YOU WILL WANT TO KNOW ABOUT "IVANHOE"

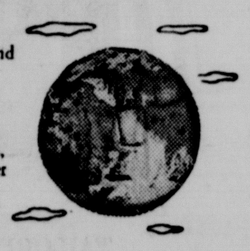

M-G-M's production of Sir Walter Scott's famous novel of romantic adventure is the first time this story has ever been brought to the screen as a full-length feature.

"Ivanhoe" was two years in production. Many months of research at the British Museum preceded actual filming. Every detail of costumes and settings was painstakingly checked for authenticity.

M-G-M transported stars and technicians thousands of miles to the actual locales of the story in England. "Ivanhoe" was filmed in its entirety amid ancient castles, famous battlefields and other historic sites.

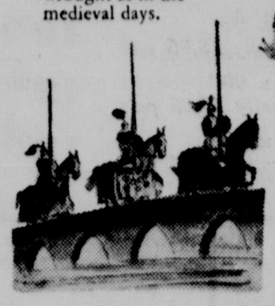

Among the scenes recreated was the storming of Torquilstone Castle with thousands of archers hurling themselves over the moats and against the battlements.

The fabulous Ashby Tourney which tested the courage and skill of knights in battle is shown in all its fury and splendor. The armor worn by the knights was hand-wrought as in the medieval days.

The gallant crusaders of Richard the Lion-Hearted and the Norman legions of Prince John were trained in the use of their lances and broadswords by military experts for many months prior to the big battle scenes.

"Ivanhoe" comes to the screen enriched by Technicolor and with thousands in the cast, including such great stars as Robert Taylor, Elizabeth Taylor, Joan Fontaine, George Sanders and Emlyn Williams.

Several Towns Face Special Voting Issues

2 Proposals On Ballots At Beatrice

By the Associated Press

Special issues ranging from changes in local government to bond issues for new sewers will show up on election ballots next Tuesday in several Nebraska communities.

Beatrice voters will decide whether to abandon the commissioner form of government and adopt the mayor-council form.

Norfolk citizens will ballot on whether or not to put the police department under civil service.

Omaha is confronted with a whole series of proposals with the result that voters will be handed no fewer than nine ballots when they enter their polling places. The ballots add up to some 9,000 words of reading matter, or a good 25 minutes of reading time.

Airport Issue

The Omaha issues include: a $1,685,000 bond issue for a new administration building at the municipal airport; a special two-mill trash and garbage pickup and disposal levy; a bond issue of $450,000 for each of the next 10 years to fix up city streets; a decision on whether advancements among city firemen should be by civil service or by seniority.

Beatrice has two special issues. Besides the question of whether to adopt the mayor-council form, there is the question of whether street and sewer departments, now under the City Commissioners, shall be put under the Board of Public Works. The latter board was created to manage the city electric and water departments after Beatrice acquired the local electric lines of the Consumers Public Power District.

Beatrice and Nebraska City are the only cities now under the commission form. The proposed change would put Beatrice under the standard statutory form for first class cities.

Issue At Norfolk

Norfolk's proposal, if approved, would put the police department under the jurisdiction of a civil service commission which would hire all police officers and make promotions. This would be the same commission which now has jurisdiction over the fire department.

Nebraska City will ballot on issuance of $30,000 in special sewer bonds. Last July the voters okayed $120,000 in sewer bonds but the amount proved too small, hence the new supplementary bond issue.

At Hastings, the ballot will list a proposal to issue $300,000 in bonds for expansion and improvement of the city's sewage treatment plant and new sewer lines.

Adams County voters, including those in Hastings, will further decide whether to appropriate about $55,000 for constructing and equipping a home for the aged.

At Scottsbluff, a new city hall hangs in the election balance.

The proposal is to issue $285,000 in bonds for the new building, which would house all city departments and include some space for rental income. A possible tax levy to pay off the bonds is included in the proposition.

Hospital Proposed

In Johnson County, of which Tecumseh is the county seat, a proposed $150,000 bond issue for a Johnson County Memorial Hospital will be on the ballot. A two-thirds vote is needed for approval.

Ballots in Lancaster County (Lincoln) will list a proposal to sell land at the county farm. Only the land would be sold. The buildings, now used as a convalescent home for oldsters, are being retained.

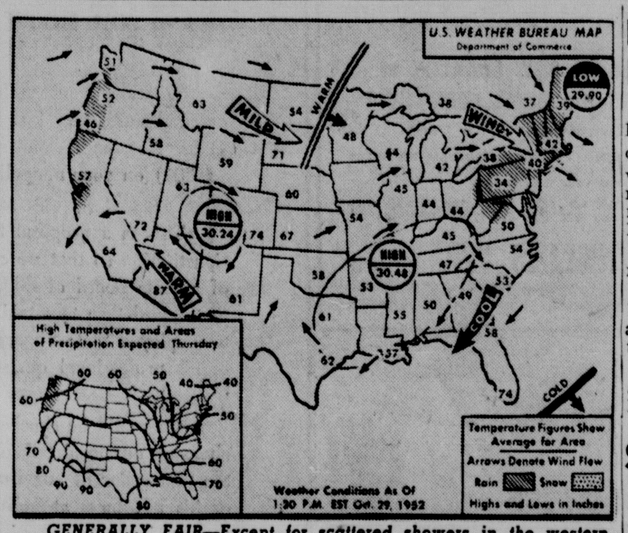

Other bond issues in Nebraska facing voters next Tuesday include:

Hayes Center, proposed $85,000 issue to complete erection of a new court house.

Morrill, $20,000 issue for extension and improvements to the street lighting system.

St. Paul, $135,000 issue, to erect a new County Community Hospital.

Pickrell, $21,000 for water system.

GENERALLY FAIR—Except for scattered showers in the western portion of the north Pacific states, the nation will have generally fair weather Thursday. It will be slightly warmer in the eastern half of the nation from the Atlantic to the Plains states. In the northern Rockies it will be cooler. (AP Wirephoto Wednesday Night.)

Imperial Student NU Cadet Wing Commander

Cadet Col. Don Winkelmann, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Winkelman of Imperial, has been named wing commander in the Air ROTC program at the University of Nebraska for the first semester.

Lt. Col. Alex C. Jamieson, Air ROTC commander and professor of air science, said Winkelmann was chosen on the basis of scholarship, leadership and military bearing.

The University's air cadet program includes three other cadet colonels who serve as squadron commanders. They are:

Richard Bierman of Omaha, an Air Force veteran.

Wayne Handshy, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Handshy of Doe Bay, Wash.

John Greer, son of Mrs. Edith S. Greer of Peru.

Baby Suffocates In His Carriage

OMAHA (AP) — Harold Albert McIntyre Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold McIntyre of Omaha apparently suffocated in his carriage Wednesday despite efforts of the Fire Department Rescue squad to revive him.

Detectives said the parents reported they had given the baby a bottle about 6:30 a.m. and placed a pillow on top of the blankets to keep them from slipping. At 10:30 a.m., detectives said, the parents, wondering why the boy was so quiet, investigated and found that the blankets and the pillow had slipped over the baby's head.

POLITICAL ADVERTISEMENT POLITICAL ADVERTISEMENT

A MESSAGE TO VOTERS OF BOTH PARTIES:

Whatever your preferences as to party or candidates, may I suggest that you vote in favor of the "School Board Amendment" (#306) on your nonpolitical ballot.

This is a proposal to change our Constitution so that we can elect members of a State Board of Education by districts, that Board then to establish policy and to employ a State Superintendent on the basis of his professional qualifications.

We would be shocked at the thought of choosing our local School Superintendent or the Chancellor of our University on the basis of his adeptness at political campaigning, yet that is precisely how we now select our State Superintendent of Public Instruction.

In the interests of good government and improvement of our state educational system, I respectfully urge you to vote next Tuesday for this important amendment.

Nixon Denies Family 'Fortune' Charge

LOS ANGELES (INS) — Sen. Richard Nixon Wednesday blasted as an "outright lie" a Democratic charge that he and his family have accumulated a $250,000 fortune in real estate.

The Republican vice presidential candidate at the same time challenged Gov. Adlai Stevenson to make the accusation personally.

Nixon made his denial and hurled the challenge in Los Angeles following his arrival to polish up a nationwide television address and to prepare for a two-day auto tour of Southern California before going east to appear on an election eve program with his running mate, Gen. Dwight Eisenhower.

In his statement, Nixon termed the latest Democratic charges against him and his family a move "desperate" and "cowardly" last-minute pre-election move to soil their names.

He declared:

"The extent of the desperation of the Stevenson candidacy is shown by this last-minute desperate move after Mr. Mitchell, (Stephen A. Mitchell, national Democratic committee chairman) and Mr. Stevenson failed in their attempt to besmirch my honor and my integrity."

"They are now attempting through the Democratic national committee to attack the honor and integrity of my 75 year old father, mother and my brother," he claimed.

WASHINGTON (AP)—Rep. Buffett (R-Neb.) Wednesday blamed "American intervention and ruthless unconditional surrender" for putting "600 million people under Communism".

Buffett Hits Intervention

Buffett declared Germany and Japan were the "twin dikes that protected Europe and Asia from Russian expansion" and their defeat opened the gates to Russian encroachment.

"It was our dominant internationalists who propelled the world into this disaster," he declared.

GOP Blind To World's 'Terrible Danger'—Truman

DAVENPORT, Ia. (INS)—Presidnet Truman said Wednesday that Republican party leaders are so "blind" to the "terrible danger the world is in" that they would cast aside U. S. Allies abroad and cut defense spending at home.

The President told a farm audience at Davenport:

"These men are blind. If we let them run the country I am certain we would face far greater danger of a general war."

He said the U. S. is fighting Communism in Korea for a single reason, which should be clear to all, adding:

"We are fighting in Korea so that we won't have to fight right here, in our own country, against invasion."

Still In Danger

A short while earlier, at Cedar Rapids, the President brought this assertion closer to home by stating:

"We have had to meet armed aggression by fighting in Korea so that we won't have to fight closer to home—so we won't have to fight in San Francisco, or Wichita, or Cedar Rapids.

"Our tasks are far from completed. We are still in danger. We have to bring this Korean conflict to an end without appeasement, and without bringing on a general war.

"But we won't succeed if we turn the Congress over to isolationists who don't see our danger, and the White House to a man whose professional training is for war."

"We shall work, vote and pray for the election of Gov. Stevenson."

SOUTH BEND, Ind. (AP)—The president of the University of Notre Dame Wednesday accused 65 faculty members of "jeopardizing" the school's non-partisan position by supporting Gov. Adlai E. Stevenson for President.

Reprimand For Faculty

The Rev. Theodore M. Hesburgh, C.S.C., was described as "greatly disturbed" by paid political advertisements which have been placed by a "Volunteers for Stevenson" organization in several metropolitan newspapers.

Father Hesburgh said in a statement the university "strenuously objects" to the "attempt to identify the University of Notre Dame with one side of the present political campaign."

The ads which carry the names of the 65 faculty members, say:

Firestone Appeals Compensation Case

Warren Firestone filed an appeal in District Court asking a reversal of the judgment delivered by the Nebraska Workmen's Compensation Court in his case.

Johnson-Schafer Inc., the Employers Mutual of Wausau, Wis., and the Mutual Liability Insurance Company of Wisconsin are named as defendants in Firestone's petition.

Firestone charges that while employed by Johnson-Schafer Inc. on May 29, 1951, the scaffold on which he was standing gave way. Firestone allegedly fell 10 to 12 feet to the ground and was injured by the fall.

Eden Opposes Use Of Chiang's Army

LONDON (INS)—Foreign Secretary Anthony Eden reaffirmed Wednesday Britain's policy of trying to prevent extension of the Korean war.

He told the House of Commons Britain is opposed to an invasion of the Chinese mainland by Chinese Nationalist troops.

Eden said "Few adventures could be less successful or fruitful."

Eden spoke in response to questions about a recent statement by Chinese Nationalist leader Chiang Kai-shek that his Nationalist forces on Formosa are determined to invade the mainland when the time is ripe.

Co-Op Failure Could Cause Monopolies, Says Economist

"If co-operatives do not perform properly their function, their failure will lead to monopolies and the people will demand more government assistance, leading to socialism," an Iowa economist declared Wednesday.

Prof. Frank Robotka, of the Iowa State College of Agriculture, addressed the 42nd annual convention of the National Farmers Equity at the Lincoln Hotel.

Registration totaled 329 members and representatives, including all of Equity's national directors.

"Co-ops can inject competition where needed," he said, and urged "enough co-ops to police the commodity market."

Robotka described the important economic role of farmer co-operatives as:

1. Placing the farmer in a position where he can't be exploited.
2. Improving the functioning of markets by reducing competitive wastes and breaking monopolies.
3. Helping preserve free, private enterprise.

"Keeping up is not enough, co-operatives should set the pace," the speaker said. "Co-ops handled almost the same percentage of the grains marketed in 1949 as in 1930."

Robotka urged the co-operatives to spend greater amounts for education and research. Private industry spends $2 to $4 per $100 gross, co-operatives probably less than one-half cent.

He declared co-operatives could duplicate the same program for less money than other business corporations, because the co-operative program does not conceive competitive waste.

Another speaker, Harry Stephens of the Wichita, Kan., Bank for Cooperatives, told the group that many cooperatives need better accounting systems; that there is too great a tendency to depend on audits at the end of the year.

A fellow banker, W. H. Thompson of the Omaha Bank for Co-operatives said the present economic trend is decreased prices and increased production costs.

"Farmers should note the trend. not alarming yet. and examine his own operation," he said. "Although farm value since 1946 has increased 57 per cent; agricultural real estate debt has increased 77 per cent and the farm non-real estate debt by 151 per cent."

He urged co-ops to greater sound credit practices. Why should cooperatives take "loan risks" that sound practices of banking forbid? he added.

Thursday's speakers include J. K. Stearn of Washington, D. C., president of the American Institute of Cooperation, Norris Anderson of the University of Nebraska agricultural college, and J. E. Curtiss of Lincoln.

The convention will elect officers at a business meeting Thursday afternoon. Chairman will be U. S. Kreider, national president.

Mrs. Elsa Pofahl, Native Of Norfolk, Dies At Hospital

Funeral arrangements are pending for Mrs. Elsa Pofahl, 70, 1233 Stillwater, a native of Norfolk, Neb., who died at a Lincoln hospital Wednesday.

Born at Norfolk Dec. 16, 1881, Mrs. Pofahl moved to Lincoln two years ago to live with her son, Lothar G. Pofahl. She was a member of the Mt. Olive Lutheran Church of Norfolk.

Surviving are her son, Lothar; a daughter, Mrs. Ada Murphy of Houston, Tex.; two sisters, Mrs. N. F. Howe and Mrs. Emma Schulz, both of Norfolk; two brothers, Ernest Schulz of Appleton, Wis., and Carl Schulz of Norfolk.

Funeral and burial will be at Norfolk.

Now—Dental Journal Reports:

How Chlorodent—in 60 days—improved the unhealthy mouths of 158 children at Boys Town

In the first major test of chlorophyll* toothpaste, dentists at famous Boys Town, Neb. discovered that Chlorodent brings "striking" improvement in mouth health. This dramatic test on acute gingivitis proves that Chlorodent can bring healthier mouths to millions!

At Boys Town, the children come from underprivileged backgrounds of poverty and malnutrition. Before coming to Boys Town, few had ever used a toothbrush . . . and acute gingivitis afflicted 92% of them!

Dentists supervise tests

The tests were rigidly controlled by dentists on the Boys Town staff. For nine months, 201 boys brushed their teeth only with Chlorodent, while a similar group used only a fine white toothpaste. During the tests, the boys' teeth were purposely not cleaned professionally.

Now the results of the tests are being released by a leading dental journal:

In just two months, 78.6% of the boys using Chlorodent showed dramatic improvement in mouth health.

Overall, these tests proved Chlorodent to be twice as effective for quickly reducing acute gingivitis—compared to the white toothpaste. In fact, it was 208% as effective. No wonder Chlorodent can make your mouth so clean, so fresh, so healthy!

*water-soluble chlorophyllins

At Father Flanagan's famous Boys Town, Chlorodent brought twice the improvement in mouth health achieved by a fine white toothpaste.

In addition, Chlorodent destroys mouth odors, fights tooth decay, keeps teeth cleanest

In nearly 1000 mouth-odor tests Chlorodent kept twice as many people free from odor as a white toothpaste. Used regularly—preferably after meals—Chlorodent gives you a clean, fresh mouth all day!

In 395 comparisons, dentists chose Chlorodent's cleansing agent for keeping teeth cleanest. And Chlorodent reduces formation of mouth acids that cause decay. See dentist if mouth troubles persist.

Lever Brothers Company unconditionally guarantees that Chlorodent does more than any other dentifrice—white, ammoniated or chlorophyll—to give you a

Vote Here To Be Counted By Morning

Despite the expected record Nov. 4 vote, Lancaster County residents should know who the county supported by Wednesday morning.

Election Commissioner Harold Gillett looks for a delay in vote counting because of possible voting past 8 p.m., but still expects to have enough ballots counted by midnight to establish the trend in the county.

The length of the costitutional amendments ballot, he said, may mean a waiting line at the polls after the 8 p.m. closing. All those persons awaiting for a ballot at the polls at closing time will be allowed to vote.

To facilitate a faster flow of voters through the polls, Gillett is urging all voters to clip the sample ballot to appear in The Star Friday morning and determine from it how to vote on the six amendments.

Gillett also reminds that state law provides that a voter can stay in the voting booth only five minutes.

There have been 69,230 sets of ballots ordered by Gillett. Each set contains three ballots—the state, county and national slate; the six constitutional amendments and the county proposal to sell the county poor farm.

From The West Coast

Arriving in Lincoln a few days ago were Mrs. Frank R. Crabtree and the three Crabtree children, Tom, Frank Jr., and Frances (left to right). Mrs. Crabtree and the children found that Lieut. Colonel Crabtree, the new commandant at the Lincoln air base, had done a very excellent job in the matter of housing, and getting partially settled in that brief interim between his arrival and theirs.

A Fun-Packed Town

THE WORLD is full of a number of things this week — chiefly football and politics—Anyway, Saturday brings the Missouri game and that, at the moment, seems to be even more paramount than next Tuesday's activities — but only for the moment of course.

And a football week-end always means guests and the list grows and grows as game day approaches—

* * *

HEARD THAT Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Sick are expecting Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Bixby and Mr. and Mrs. Francis Wornall of Kansas City for the week-end—The foursome arrives Friday evening and will spend the week-end as the house guests of Mr. and Mrs. Sick.

* * *

COMBINE a football week-end with an insurance institute and you REALLY have guests—Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Faulkner have guests arriving today — but we'll skip that since we already have mentioned it—From St. Joseph, Mo., on Friday will come Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Bartlett who are to spend the remainder of the week-end as the house guests of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Spangler.

* * *

GOING FURTHER into this matter of football and insurance meetings we find numerous social events—which we also have mentioned—Mr. and Mrs. Sick's dinner at the University club Saturday evening honors various of the insurance institute visitors, plus other out of town guests—On Saturday, Mr. and Mrs. Sick will be host and hostess at the University club's pre-game luncheon when they honor their visitors from Kansas City—and on Saturday evening at the Lincoln Country club is the dinner for which Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Faulkner and Mr. and Mrs. George B. Cook will be hosts and hostesses.

* * *

THEN WE found out that Mr. and Mrs. Clyde O. Ferguson of St. Louis will come Friday to spend the week-end and attend the game with Mr. and Mrs. Norman Walt. In case you need a refresher, Mrs. Norman Walt Jr., of Cleveland, O., is the former JoAnn Ferguson, the daughter of the guests from St. Louis.

Anyway, on Friday evening Dean Florence Walt of Doane college, Crete, will be a dinner hostess at the Lincoln Country Club when she honors Mr. and Mrs. Ferguson.

And on Saturday evening Mr. and Mrs. Norman Walt will preside at dinner at their home, complimenting the visitors. Places will be arranged for ten.

* * *

AMONG THE missing at Saturday's game will be Mr. and Mrs. William Edgecomb who, with their daughters, Emily and Katie, plan to spend the Saturday-to-Monday period in Yankton, S. D., the guests of Mrs. Edgecomb's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Monfore.

* * *

VIA OMAHA yesterday came word of the engagement of Miss Nancy Jim Moore, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Bennett Moore of Sioux Falls, S. D., to Thomas John Milliken, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Dale Milliken of Fremont. Miss Moore is a graduate of Monticello junior college, and also was graduated from the University of Nebraska where she is a member of Kappa Kappa Gamma sorority. Mr. Milliken is a graduate of the University of Nebraska and a member of Phi Kappa Psi fraternity.

To Meet Friday

The Havelock YWCA Matronettes will meet at 1:30 o'clock, Friday, at the center for a program and demonstration on making nylon corsages. Mrs. William C. Hall will open the meeting, the hostesses will be Mrs. Glen Litzenberg and Mrs. Elmer Harrison.

The club is open to all women who are interested in learning new ideas on homemaking. A nursery will be provided for the pre-school children of the members.

Medical Auxiliary

The November meeting of the Lancaster County Medical auxiliary will be held on Monday when the members meet at 1 o'clock at the Orthopedic hospital nurses home. Mrs. Maynard A. Wood, president, will conduct a short meeting and the program will feature a talk on the six proposed constitutional amendments by a member of the League of Women Voters of Lincoln.

Mrs. R. H. Whitham and Mrs. F. A. Alcorn will be co-chairmen for the affair assisted by Mrs. H. H. Whitlock, Mrs. E. S. Wegner, Mrs. G. R. Underwood, Mrs. R. L. Thomas, Mrs. S. T. Thierstein, Mrs. Fritz Teal, Mrs. O. V. Calhoun, Mrs. C. F. Ferciot and Mrs. H. D. Hilton.

PTA State Board Meets

Mrs. A. E. Hanneman, president of the state organization. In the second row, from the left, are: Mrs. Lowell Wilks, Scottsbluff, program chairman; Mrs. J. G. Schmidt, Omaha, editor of the state bulletin; and Mrs. Robert E. Swan, McCook, member-at-large.

Meeting at the Hotel Cornhusker on Wednesday, the executive board of the Nebraska Congress of Parents and Teachers voted to take no stand on the motor vehicle amendment to the state constitution, which will appear on next Tuesday's election ballots. The executive committee has urged that PTA members in the state study both sides of the amendment.

The board approved the appointment of Mrs. Gordon Lozier of Omaha, as chairman of the scholarship committee to coordinate the work of the teachers scholarship program in teacher training colleges in Nebraska, and also made plans to cooperate in the federal civil defense program on the volunteer registration to be held throughout the nation November 11 to 27.

Travel Group Tells Speakers

The A.A.U.W. travel group which meets the first Monday of each month for a 6 o'clock dinner at the Y.W.C.A. and then hears various speakers, is announcing its programs for the coming year.

The programs are as follows: November 3, "Intimate Glances of Scandinavia," by Ethel Johnson, dean of women at Nebraska Wesleyan; December 3, "Summer in France," by Miss Elizabeth Grone, teacher at Lincoln high school; January 5, "British Guiana," by the Rev. Paul C. Hanson, Lutheran missionary; February 2, "Nova Scotia, New England States, Washington, D. C., Western National Parks, Desert Flowers, Rose Parade," by Miss Edna Thompson and Miss Iva Hess.

Other programs will include: March 2, "China, Siam and India," by Miss Florence Brugger, chief social worker at Veterans hospital; April 6, "Nigeria, Africa," by Dr. Orrin J. Webster, University of Nebraska college of agriculture; and May 4, "Continental Europe," by Miss Geneva Wheeler and Miss Nevada Wheeler.

PatriarchPumpkinParty

Deciding whose faces are behind the masks seems to be the task at hand for these members of the Patriarch club who met on Wednesday evening at the Lincoln Country Club for the "Patriarchs Pumpkin Party."

After much inquiry, we found that they are: from left to right, Mrs. Jack Stewart, Mr. Stewart, Mrs. Richard Wilson and Charles Drake.

The committee for the dinner-meeting included: Mr. and Mrs. Harold P. Stebbins, Mr. and Mrs. J. Taylor Greer and Mr. and Mrs. Craig O'Brien.

Beta Sigma Phi

Miss Marit Anderson, Miss Irene Marie Kotas and Miss Carol Lee Tingleff are the three candidates of Theta chapter, Beta Sigma Phi, and will be presented at Sunday's city-wide Beta Sigma Phi initiation tea. The event, which will be held from 2 o'clock until 5 o'clock at the Lincoln hotel ballroom will be presided over by Mrs. Robert Green, with Miss Wauneta Sharp presenting the candidates for initiation.

We Hear That

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Turnwall entertained at a family dinner on Sunday, October 26 in honor of their daughter and son-in-law, T. Sgt. and Mrs. O. S. Burnham and their son and daughter, Stephen and Linda. Sgt. Burnham will be transferred in November to Bermuda where his family will join him. Mrs. Burnham is the former Shirley Turnwall.

★

Returning home Monday evening from a six weeks' tour of Europe were Miss Ruth Wertz and Miss Clara Wertz who traveled in England, Belgium, Holland, Germany, Switzerland, Italy and France. They are the daughters of Mr. and Mrs. John B. Wertz of Lincoln.

Plan Anniversary Celebration

The social committee of the Lincoln Woman's club met at 10 o'clock on Tuesday, October 28, to make plans for a birthday luncheon in observance of the club's fifty-eighth anniversary.

Present at the meeting were Mrs. George W. Mechling, president; Mrs. L. T. Shirk, social chairman; and committee chairmen, Mrs. Guilford E. Abbott, in charge of reception; Mrs. R. D. Traver, hostesses; Mrs. H. C. Deitemeyer, table decorations; and Mrs. M. E. Rolfsmeyer, luncheon arrangements and reservations.

The luncheon will be held on Monday, November 24, at the Cornhusker hotel.

Celebrates Birthday

Clergymen, Educators, Laymen Hit McCarthyism

Declaration Warns America's Liberties Being Threatened

NEW YORK (INS)—Sen. Joseph McCarthy (R-Wis) was denounced Wednesday night as a menace to American liberties and condemned on moral grounds as a "wholesale" vilifier of patriotic citizens, by 55 clergymen, educators and laymen.

The Rev. H. A. Reinhold, Rt. Rev. Angus Dun, Rabbi Israel Goldstein and other Roman Catholic, Jewish and Protestant members of the clergy were among the group who signed the "statement on McCarthyism."

Included among the lay Catholic signers were Walter Kerr of the New York Herald Tribune; Joseph D. McGoldrick, New York attorney and former comptroller of the City of New York, and John J. O'Connor Jr., associate director of the Carnegie Institute of Fine Arts.

'Aids Reds'

The signers described "McCarthyism" in general, "and Sen. McCarthy in particular," as a "threat to the freedom an future of America second only to the Communist conspiracy itself." They declared that McCarthyism, "by its confusion of issues and its undermining of confidence in the basic procedure of American democracy, aids rather than harms" Communism.

The declaration likened Sen. McCarthy's tactics to those of Hitler and Mussolini, who "came to power because of their promise to save their countries from the threats of chaos and Communism."

Other prominent signers included Dr. Harry Emerson Fosdick of New York; Dr. Reinhold Niebuhr, dean of faculty of New York's Union Theological Seminary; Donald McDonald of the Davenport, Ia., Catholic Messenger; Frank O'Malley, editor of the Notre Dame review of politics; Edward S. Skillin, editor-in-chief of the Commonweal, and Rev. Alexander Zabriskie of Alexandria, Va.

McCarthy 'Demagogue' —Wisconsin Editor

CHICAGO (AP) — A Wisconsin editor Wednesday denounced Sen. Joseph R. McCarthy (R-Wis) as "a consummate demagogue who seized the issue of Communism in order to save his own political hide."

William T. Evjue, editor of the Capital Times, Madison, told a gathering of Illinois Democratic candidates and party workers that "McCarthyism" has cast "the shadow of disloyalty over thousands of honest and conscientious citizens."

"In 1949 he (McCarthy) knew he was a dead duck politically unless he could find some way to divert the attention of the people from his miserable record," Evjue said.

The editor accused McCarthy of winning his first nomination to the Senate over Robert M. La Follette Jr., with the help of Communist organizations in Milwaukee and New York.

Omaha Woman New President Of Nebraska Dietetic Group

Marion Keller of Omaha took over the office of president of the Nebraska Dietetic Association Wednesday at the organization's annual convention at the Cornhusker Hotel. She succeeds Dr. Doretta Schaphoff of Lincoln.

Other new officers are: Betty J. Yapp, of Hastings, president-elect; Doris Spragg of Omaha, treasurer; Ruth Johnson of Lincoln, secretary, and Agnes Richling of Omaha, delegate to the House of Delegates.

Fifty-three delegates from throughout Nebraska registered for the one-day meeting at which Dr. Richard Bourne said to remember that when hiring personnel, one's hiring "people," and "not labor or employees."

The associate professor of economics and labor relations at the University of Nebraska told the group that employees like to have the feeling of participation in the work, know when they are progressing and know the reason why they are doing particular jobs.

Rating Sheets

He discussed the value of rating sheets set up by individual businesses which, he says, offer the opportunity to call in employees and discuss what they have done and analyze objectively their work.

Mrs. Margaret Dowden Bernard of Denver, a member of the Council of the House of Delegates of the American Dietetic Association, described the organizational structure of the organization and reminded the group that the only way to improve general nutrition is by providing good food.

"You can't change food habits by telling a person," she said, "but you can when good food—that is nutritious and tasty—is offered."

A report on the national convention was given by Agnes Richling of Omaha. An afternoon coffee hour concluded the convention activities.

Square Dance Lessons To Draw Large Crowd

A high attendance is expected at the square dance lessons starting Monday evening as reservations pile up in the City Recreation Department.

To be held at the Lincoln High School girls' gymnasium, the lessons will run from 7:30 to 9:30 p.m. on Nov. 3, 10 and 17. The free lessons are sponsored by the City Recreation Board and the Lincoln Folk and Square Dance clubs.

2 Fremont Youths Enter Guilty Pleas Car Theft Charge

Two Fremont youths, Albert Callaway, 20, and Harold McGhee, 19, pleaded guilty in District Court Wednesday to a charge of car theft. District Judge John L. Polk ordered them held in the County Jail pending investigation by George Meyer, Adult Probation Officer.

Callaway and McGhee told law enforcement officers that they stole the car, owned by Harold Bilbo, 5242 Madison, on Oct. 19 because they failed to obtain a ride from Lincoln to Fremont by hitchhiking.

They were arrested in Omaha.

County Attorney Frederick H. Wagener said that both have served commitments at the Kearney Industrial School for Boys.

Fourteen UMOC Candidates Picked

Fourteen University of Nebraska male students are competing for the title "Ugliest Man on Campus," which will be determined Friday by an all-University election.

The winner will be presented by Mayor Victor Anderson during the halftime ceremonies of the Missouri-Nebraska football game Saturday.

Candidates are:

Mike Lawlor, Lincoln, Sigma Chi.
Jack Aschwege, Palmer, Farm House.
Sterling "Fritz" Olson, Minden, Alpha Gamma Rho.
Charles Wright, Scottsbluff, Beta Theta Pi.
Don Rogers, Honolulu, Tau Kappa Epsilon.
Jim Tangdall, Superior, Pioneer House.
Ed Hussman, Ogallala, Pi Kappa Phi.
Max Kennedy, Beatrice, Delta Tau Delta.
Jim Munger, Lincoln, Phi Delta Theta.
Norm Gauger, Grant, Sigma Phi Epsilon.
Sheldon Green, Chicago, Zeta Beta Tau.
Charles Wrobleski, Omaha, Theta Chi.
Martin Bree, Norfolk, Theta Xi.
Dick Christoph, Glencoe, Ill., Alpha Tau Omega.

Candidates To Speak At WCTU Meeting

Members of the Grace Methodist Women's Christian Temperance Union will meet at 2 p.m. Saturday at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Paul Kern, 2300 Van Dorn.

Local and county candidates for election Nov. 4 have been invited to give short talks at the meeting.

Mrs. Frank Kennedy of the Salvation Army will conduct the worship service. New members will be introduced.

Top Oil Firms Ask Dismissal Of Jury In Monopoly Case

WASHINGTON (AP)—A group of major oil companies Wednesday appealed to the Supreme Court in their effort to win dismissal of a special Federal Grand Jury called here to investigate possible anti-trust law violations.

Companies in the proceeding include: California-Texas Oil Co., Socony-Vacuum Oil Co., Standard Oil Co. of California, the Texas Co., and the Arabian American Oil Co.

Amendment Favored To Get Annual Legislative Sessions

Annual sessions, instead of every other year meetings of the Legislature, was recommended in a report Wednesday of a Legislative Council sub-committee which has been making interim studies.

During the present biennium, Gov. Val Peterson has called two special sessions of the Legislature since adjournment. Special sessions were also called in 1940, 1944 and 1946.

If the change cannot be accomplished by simple legislative enactment, then a constitutional amendment should be submitted to the voters, the committee said.

Attorney Gen. C. S. Beck ruled recently in an opinion requested by the committee that the change to annual sessions could not come without amending the constitution.

Legal Aspects

Still hopeful that it might be done more easily than that, the committee in its report to the Legislative Council urged that legal aspects of the question be explored further.

The committee, headed by Sen. Tom Adams of Lincoln, said it recognized the advantages and disadvantages of annual sessions, but added it believed the advantages outweigh the disadvantages.

The committee's recommendations will be considered by the entire Legislature when it meets Nov. 12 as the Legislative Council.

Members of the committee, besides Adams, were H. G. Wellensiek, Grand Island, and W. J. Williams, Kearney.

Here are some of the advantages which the committee listed for annual sessions:

1. Budget estimates can be more accurate if made for one year instead of two years.
2. The business of state government has expanded to such an extent that there are many problems, besides the budget, which require legislative attention more frequently than once every two years.
3. With the increasing functions of state government, the Legislature can scarcely attend to all of the accumulated problems of the biennium in three or four months.
4. The Legislature can keep closer check on state government if it meets every year than if 19 to 21 months elapse between sessions.

Arguments against annual sessions:

Biennial sessions are more economical; Legislatures pass too many laws already; if the Legislature meets only every two years, each session will be of greater importance; legislators are not full-time officials and annual sessions would impose a burden on them.

Colorado Plan

Ten states now have annual legislative sessions. The only one in this section is Colorado which adopted the plan in 1950.

In a separate report, the Legislative Council committee on rules recommended that the Legislature provide sufficient assistance to the bill drafter to enable him to function without relying so heavily on the revisor of statutes. The committee recommended also that the relationship between the bill drafter and the attorney for enrollment and review be more clearly defined.

Sen. Ed Lusienski of Columbus heads the rules committee.

On Hazards Of Saturday

MISSOURI comes here Saturday and, if previous invasions by Ol' Mizzou can be used as any measuring stick, all thunder is liable to break loose.

There is something about these Husker-Tiger meetings that breeds breathless football, offensive play on a bender and a maximum of long runs and passes.

John Bordogna

If this was the idea at Columbia a year ago, who will ever forget the spine-twitcher here in 1950? That was the day when Mr. Robert Reynolds rewrote the book of miracles.

More of the same is promised this trip with Mizzou rated among the Big Seven's elite at forward passing and the Huskers high up in rushing yardage.

As a yearly visitor to these Tiger-Husker duels, we continue to wonder how so many spectators are restored to their families and mortgage holders when the day is over.

Not since the battle of Wounded Knee has the western plaines heard such a clashing of flesh and metal as occurs here when all the Nebraskans and Missourians in these parts head for the stadium at once.

Only the first-timers take off for the stadium between 12 and one o'clock. Those uninitiated in the joys of barking pedestrians and locking fenders with their fellow humans start at a sensible hour and miss all of the excitement. All they see is the football game, which is usually a thriller when Nebraska and Mizzou are envolved, but not even as frantic as the race to Memorial Stadium a half hour before the kick-off.

VETERANS at these affairs usually wait around the hotels and, after sucking on a glass of high-octane ice for medicinal purposes, jump into their cars and sail off into the blur of traffic.

Spectators who do make it in one piece, in limb and fenders, are going to see how valuable the optional run-or-pass play can be.

Missouri has used the play to great advantage all season.

Up to the Penn State and Colorado games, the Huskers could get by on straight rushing power. In these last two outings, however, Mr. John Bordogna has begun to show how honest you can keep the foe by the throw-or-run option.

During these days of high-voltage offensive football, you simply can't win games by (1) rushing all the time, or (2) passing all the time.

Look at Washington, which has in Don Henrich the nation's top collegiate passer by a western mile. While Don breaks all of the flipping records, his team continues to lose games.

Michigan State, Maryland and Oklahoma, the nation's three top teams by Associated Press poll measurements, all blend running and passing.

Keep 'em honest by passing—then tear into the line. That's our formula.

Student Booked In Bribe Attempt At Maryland U

... Offers Made To Scarbath, Two Others

By JAMES LEE

WASHINGTON (INS)—A 20-year-old junior student at the University of Maryland voluntarily surrendered to Washington police Wednesday night after he was charged with attempting to bribe a Maryland football star to hold down the score in an intersectional game.

The youth, identified as Leonard Glickfield, son of Albert Glickfield, operator of a Washington after-hours club, was booked as a fugitive from Prince Georges County, Md., and released on $1,000 bail.

The university reported that the bribery attempt was made to three of its gridiron stars, including All-America Candidate Jack Scarbath, who were asked to hold down the victory margin last Saturday against Louisiana State University to less than 21 points.

College officials said Center Tom Cosgrove of Maryland's offensive team was offered $1,000 and Guard Frank Navarro $400.

Maryland police issued a warrant charging attempted bribery against the Glickfield youth mentioning only the offer to Cosgrove.

Coach Jim Tatum's Terrapins answered the bribery attempt by swamping LSU 34 to 6—with Scarbath tossing three touchdown passes.

The youth's father said he wanted a "heart to heart" talk with Tatum and insisted:

"My son is an honest kid and I want to clear up this thing immediately."

The Glickfield youth was a substitute on the 1950 Maryland freshman squad, and Wednesday morning he slipped out of a class while authorities were looking for him for questioning.

Maryland University President H. C. (Curly) Byrd described the attempted bribe as "a plot undoubtedly hatched by a professional gambling ring."

Byrd added: "Of course, he (the student) will be dropped from the school's roles."

The players, in sworn statements to the police, declared that the student at first offered $1,000 to Cosgrave, they approached Navarro with $400 and finally Scarbath with $100.

Tatum disagreed with his boss. The coach said he did not think professional gamblers were behind the bribe attempt because it was "so amateurish." He added that he does not think there ever will be a successful attempt to bribe a college football player.

The incident is believed to be the first public disclosure of an attempted "fix" in the long history of college football.

It recalled last year's college basketball scandals, which resulted in conviction of some of the indoor game's brightest luminaries, and the unsuccessful attempt to bribe two key members of the New York Giants pro football team in the 1946 championship contest.

University officials withheld disclosure of the incident in the hope they could trap the would-be "fixer" in an attempt to repeat his scheme prior to this week's game with Boston University.

A spokesman said, however, that the student involved apparently became suspicious and "disappeared" before the trap could be sprung.

Dr. Byrd then authorized release of the bribe story as a warning, the university athletic office said, that Maryland players are "untouchable."

In a sworn statement to Prince George County Detectives William R. May and Don Newcomer, the 21-year-old Scarbath gave this account of the bribe attempt:

The star quarterback, a campus hero, said he was approached in a College Park drug store the night of Oct. 20 by a fellow student—not an athlete—who remarked that the football pools were quoting Maryland as a 26-28 point favorite over LSU.

Scarbath added that on the eve of the game the same student again accosted him, "showed a stack of ten dollar bills" and said it would "help a lot to keep the 'spread' under 21 points."

Cosgrove and Navarro related similar experiences.

The three players reported the attempted bribery to Tatum last Saturday morning, a few hours before game time. The coach immediately called a meeting of the full squad and told his gridders what had happened.

Tatum also promptly informed Dr. Byrd—himself a renowned athlete in his youth—and the university president communicated with the state's attorney's office.

Maryland, largely due to Scarbath's passing, rolled up an early lead and continued to "pour it on" until the final quarter, when the score was 34-0 and Tatum replaced most of his first-stringers.

Husker State To Serve As 1953 'Model'

SUPERIOR, Neb. (INS)—Nebraska is going to serve as a "model" next year for a proposed nationwide baseball program sponsored by the National Baseball Congress.

Ray Dumont, president and founder of the NBC, outlined the program last night in a speech before the Superior Chamber of Commerce.

He said his orgainization will establish 16 district tournaments throughout Nebraska for the coming baseball season with affiliated leagues franchised in every section of the state.

The Nebraska champion will meet Iowa's top non-professional champions in a bi-state playoff with the victor certified into the 19th annual national tournament in Wichita, Kan., starting August 14th, Dumont said.

Iowa Farmers Ask Hunting Postponed; Called Fire Hazard

DES MOINES (AP)—Iowa farmers Wednesday asked postponement of the pheasant hunting season if the state does not have rain within the next two weeks.

Howard Hill, president of the Iowa Farm Bureau, relayed the recommendations of the state board of directors and of several county farm bureau groups to Gov. William S. Beardsley that the season be delayed to ease the mounting threat of fire.

Chicago White Sox Hire, Fire Coaches

CHICAGO (AP) — The Chicago White Sox Wednesday rehired one coach and dropped another, Jimmy Adair, boyhood schoolmate of Sox Manager Paul Richards.

Lum Harris, listed as Sox batting practice pitcher the last two seasons, but promoted to coaching status midway last season, will continue as a full-time coach.

Gophers Take It Easy

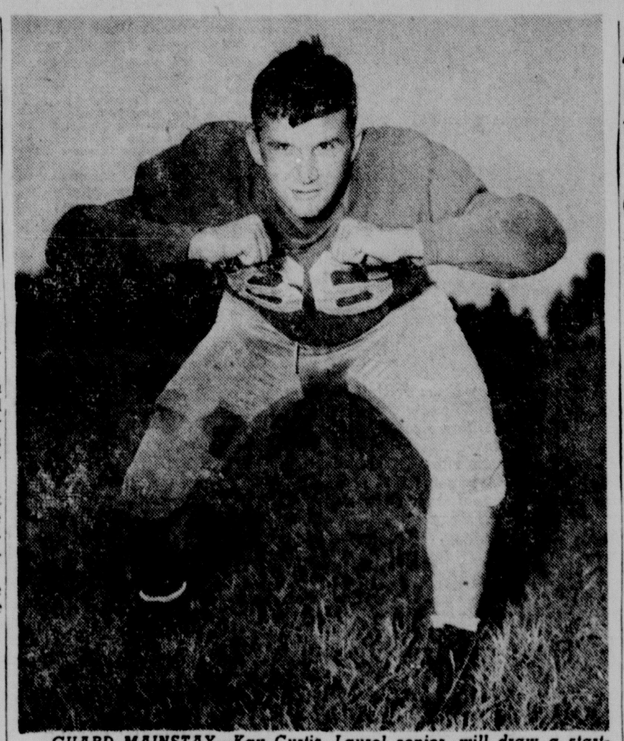

MINNEAPOLIS (AP)—The Minnesota Gophers went through a workout minus the rough stuff Wednesday as they got ready for their Homecoming meet with Iowa Saturday.

Coach Wes Fesler had the varsity running against the frosh, who took Iowa formations. There was little live tackling and blocking was the only contact work.

Raffensberger Signs

CINCINNATI (AP)—Kenny Raffensber, Cincinnati's best pitcher in 1952, signed his contract for next season Wednesday.

The 37-year-old southpaw control export won 17 games last season and dropped 13. In 247 innings, he gave only 45 bases on balls, and had six shutouts.

Howard Thrapp Sidelined For Northeast-Bunny Fray Tonight

NORTHEAST'S chances of pulling an upset against Omaha Benson here tonight suffered a a severe blow at midweek when Howard Thrapp, first string quarterback, suffered an aggravation of a charley horse he had nursed since last week. The injury will probably keep him out of the game.

Howard Thrapp

Thrapp, a shrewd caller of plays as well as a first-class blocking back and defensive bearcat, will be replaced by Larry Delaney, 150-pound junior.

A win over the Bunnies offers Northeast the opportunity to regain prestige lost in defeats handed them by Lincoln High and Omaha South. Last week Omaha North, second-ranked team in the state, topped Benson, 28-13. The Bunnies are rated fifth.

The Rockets' hopes rest with an advantage of some 10 pounds per man in team weight comparison, one that may be somewhat offset by the speed displayed by the Bunnies in rolling to five straight wins before bowing to the Vikings.

Northeast will count on the plunging of Junior Thomas, 180-pound fullback, and the end sweeps of Ron Steele and Ken Forbes. Forbes, who was a ball of fire in early games only to go into a slump, found himself last week. Sharing the bulk of the ball-carrying with Thomas, he averaged better than eight yards per try in rolling up 118 rushing yards against Fairbury.

In addition to naming Delaney to take over Thrapp's signal-calling duties, Coach Bun Galloway listed Jack Ryan, 174-pound junior, as a starter at guard in another change from earlier lineups.

Game time is 7:30 p.m. at O. N Magee Memorial Stadium. The probable offensive lineups:

NORTHEAST	Poos.	BENSON
Norval Holverson	LE	Stuart Howerter
Don Voils	LT	Elwood Mink
Jack Childress	LG	Simon Simon
Ervin Pfiefer	C	Kenneth Moorhead
Jack Ryan	RG	John Deland
Jim Pavey	RT	Robert Andersen
Dave Tullis	RE	LeRoy Heffinger
Larry Delaney	QB	Don Harden
Ron Seele	LH	Gerald Rigg
Ken Forbes	RH	Ronald Sappenfield
Junior Thomas	FB	Harvey Anderson

Waitkus Appeal For Expenses Is Nixed

PHILADELPHIA (INS)—Judge Peter F. Hagan dismissed Wednesday an appeal from Eddie Waitkus, star Phillies first baseman, against the state workmen's compensation board.

The board rejected a ruling by its own referee that Waitkus was entitled to $3,500 for medical expenses incurred when he was shot by a demented girl in Chicago early in the 1949 baseball season.

Judge Hagan, of common pleas court, summarily turned down Waitkus' appeal, in which he contended he was conducting public relations for the Phillies at the time he was wounded by a .22-caliber rifle.

Waitkus was shot in a room of a Chicago hotel after the girl invited him to visit her. She has since served a term in a mental institution.

Andy Loehr Slated For Starting End Assignment

By NORRIS ANDERSON
Sports Editor, The Star

COACH J. William Glassford, a man who refuses to wear a favorite's toga, scoffed Wednesday at the one-touchdown nod his Nebraska Cornhuskers are being given over Missouri.

"There is no such thing as a favorite in football," snorted Uncle Bill.

He refused to carry this notion into a friendly little wager on the Iowa State-Oklahoma game, but he went on in lurid detail on how miserable his Huskers looked at Columbia last year.

Among the certainties as the Huskers went through a last bit of contact (on defense) Wednesday was that little Andy Loehr, who starred against Colorado, would draw a starting end assignment.

Glassford announced that Andy would start at either left or right end on the offensive platoon. Where he doesn't start, Ted Connor or Emil Radik will.

Radik, up from the B team halfback ranks, has shown rapid strides as an end. Glassford likes his quick action.

He gets his big chance with the loss of George Mink, out for the season with a broken collar bone.

Probable offensive line starters Saturday include Harvey Goth and Jim Oliver, tackles; George Prochaska and Kay Curtis, guards, and Bob Oberlin, center.

John Bordogna will quarterback two halfback-fullback combines. One trio includes Fullback Ray Novak and Halfbacks Dennis Korinek and Bill Thayer. The other pairs Fullback George Cifra with Halfbacks Jim Cederdahl and Bob Smith.

Probable defensive starters include Bill Schabacker and Dennis Emanuel, ends; Jerry Minnick and Ed Husmann, tackles; Max Kitzelman and Don Boll, guards; Carl Brasee and Verl Scott, linebackers; Jim Yeisley and Dan Brown, halfbacks, and Chuck Chamley, safety.

All-America Bobby Reynolds, still healing a shoulder separation, will be game captain. His active duty will probably be restricted to booting extra points and field goals.

Two scouts will be on the road. Bob Faris will scout Minnesota against Iowa and Ray Prochaska will watch Kansas against Kansas State.

The University of Colorado will run here Saturday against the University of Nebraska three milers in a "cross country" run, all of which will be staged around the edge of the field which separates the Coliseum and Field House. The race will start at 10:30 a.m.

Colorado is undefeated, having won from Wyoming and Iowa State. Coach Ed Weir believes it will be a great battle for first place between Clayton Scott of Nebraska and Lloyd Barlow of Colorado. The latter won from Iowa State in 15:49.5.

Nebraska runners, in addition to Scott of Grand Island, will be Bob Rutz, Newman Grove; Don Wilcox, York; Lyle Wolfe, Benkelman, and Forrest Doling, Scottsbluff.

Portable radios will be banned from the Nebraska stadium during the Missouri and Minnesota games. There has long been a rule against these but some of the fans have been able to "smuggle" them into their seats, Business Manager A. J. Lewandowski said.

So many complaints from other ticket holders have been received that a closer watch will be kept at the gates during the last two home games, Lewandowski said.

Glenn Hoy Suffers Slight Concussion

Glenn Hoy, College View guard, spent Wednesday night under observation at a local hospital after suffering a slight brain concussion in scrimmage at the school Wednesday afternoon.

Viewman Coach Tom Gillaspie reported that examinations indicate that Hoy is now "all right," but that he would remain at the hospital until Thursday.

Huskers Rank 5th In U.S. In Rushing Yards

NEW YORK (AP)—Nebraska's Cornhuskers currently rank fifth in the nation in average number of yards gained by rushing per football game, statistics released by the NCAA Service Bureau disclosed Wednesday.

In six games, Nebraska has tried 398 rushing plays for a total of 1,684 yards or an average of 280.7 per game.

The leader in this category is California with an average of 305.5 yards gained by rushing per game. San Jose State is second with a 301.2 average, followed by Oklahoma with 294.8, Tulsa with 294.4 and then Nebraska.

Michigan State, Maryland and Oklahoma are among the five major college teams still averaging 400 or more yards gained a game.

Huskers Rank 10th In Total Defense

NEW YORK (AP) — Nebraska ranks 10th in the nation on total defense the NCAA Service Bureau reported Wednesday. The Huskers in six games and 342 plays have limited opponents to 1,276 yards or 212.7 yards per game.

Nebraska is the only Big Seven team ranking in the top ten defensively.

Two other teams are in the top bracket for punting. Colorado leads the nation with an average of 43.9 yards for 35 punts in six games. Missouri is sixth with a 42.2 yard average for 27 punts in six games.

Yanks Clean Up On Irish Sweepstakes

DUBLIN (INS)—A fortune of $1,456,000 in Irish Hospital Sweepstakes prizes was won Wednesday by about a score of lucky Americans holding tickets on the winning horses in the English Cambridgeshire Stakes.

The race at Newmarket was won by Richer, a 100-to-6 shot. Second and third were Sunny Brae and Garrison Hack, who paid 66 to one and 50 to one, respectively.

Tackle Lou Creekmur of the Detroit Lions in the NFL weighed 16 pounds when he was born.

Quail Joins Hunters' Wanted List In 30 Counties Saturday

NEBRASKA'S hunting becomes more diversified at sunrise Saturday, Nov. 1 as the state's 23-day long quail season gets under way in 30 counties and part of five others in southeast Nebraska.

At this time, Nebraskans are already hunting pheasants in most of the state and ducks, geese, coot, rabbits, squirrels, raccoon and opossum in all of Nebraska. The state has concluded its grouse season which ran from Oct. 11 to 15.

Quail hunters are encouraged by Game Commission investigations which indicate good hunting. Summer checks show a quail population slightly below that of last year, but higher than that of 1950.

The northern and western parts of the open zone appear to have more quail than a year ago while the southeastern counties have less. The population is apparently more evenly distributed within the open zone than a year ago.

Hunters will undoubtedly be spending most of their field hours in areas where there is a combination of suitable woody cover (hedgerows and weedy fence rows) and food (foxtail, seeds, weed seeds and some corn).

Quail generally leave their roosting areas in mid-morning, traveling via travel lanes (hedgerows, etc.) to feeding areas after which they go to loafing cover. They return to feed in mid-afternoon and then back to the roosting areas.

More dogs will be used in quail hunting than in hunting of any other game species in the state. Many hunters consider dogs as a "must" in quail hunting. Using dogs not only expedites finding the birds, but also limits lost birds and adds to the sport.

It is with dogs, however, that quail hunting will suffer unless rain falls soon. Most dogs are unable to pick up scent when such dry conditions prevail.

The quail season runs through Nov. 23. Hunting hours are sunrise to one hour before sunset.

Open area consists of Adams, Buffalo, Cass, Clay, Douglas, Fillmore, Franklin, Gage, Hall, Hamilton, Harlan, Jefferson, Johnson, Kearney, Lancaster, Nemaha, Nuckolls, Otoe, Pawnee, Phelps, Polk, Richardson, Saline, Sarpy, Saunders, Seward, Thayer, Wheeler and York counties and that portion of the following counties south of U. S. Highway No. 30: Colfax, Dodge, Merrick, Platte and Washington, except for Federal and State sanctuaries and refuges in these areas.

Tigers End Rough Stuff For NU Tilt

Faurot Will Stick By Backfield Combination

By The Associated Press

COLUMBIA, Mo.—The University of Missouri football squad worked on offense Wednesday, with Coach Don Faurot sticking by the backfield shakeup he made against Iowa State last week as the starting combination he will use against the University of Nebraska at Lincoln Saturday.

The scrimmage was the last rough work of the week for the Tigers. They will go through a light drill Thursday and spend Friday on the train on the way to Lincoln.

Cyclones Are 'Ready'

AMES, Ia.—Iowa State's varsity offense and defense, using Oklahoma formations, scrimmaged in preparation for the Sooners' invasion here Saturday.

"We'll be ready for Oklahoma," Coach Abe Stuber said. "We'll give them everything we got." Oklahoma defending Big Seven champion is a heavy favorite to defeat Iowa State, winner of only one game this year.

Three Cyclones are lost for Saturday's conference football game and a fourth is on the doubtful list. They are Roger Cunningham and Bob Rohwedden, both ends, and Clyde Titus, tackle, definitely out, and Frank Congiardo, a halfback, who may see limited duty.

Bud Expects Passes

NORMAN, Okla. (AP)—Expecting an aerial barrage against Iowa State at Ames Saturday, the Oklahoma Sooners worked on pass defense and scrimmaged.

Coach Bud Wilkinson will taper off with a light drill Thursday for his Sooners, the nation's highest scoring eleven.

Wildcats Recuperate

MANHATTAN, Kan.—There's a chance that three of Kansas State's top football players—out for two games with injuries—may see action against the University of Kansas Saturday.

Jack McShulskis, former West Point end, and Ken Barr, No. 1 defensive end, worked out in sweat clothes.

Buff Hurts Shoulder

BOULDER, Colo.—Colorado Reserve Guard Bryce Zarit, 230-pounder from Denver, suffered a dislocated elbow as the Buffaloes prepared for next Saturday's game against Utah.

He probably will be lost to the team for three weeks. Back Woody Shelton didn't don pads Wednesday because of an old groin injury. And Defensive Halfback Tom Brookshier sat out the session because of a cold.

Jayhawks Stiffen

LAWRENCE, Kas. — Kansas' hard-tackling defensive corps made it almost impossible for a reserve team using Kansas State plays to gain as the Jayhawkers got ready to meet the oft-beaten Wildcats at Manhattan Saturday.

Coach Jules Sikes ran his squad through a heavy workout but gave a number of his regulars a rest by working second and third stringers in some spots. He indicated he was pleased with the work of his defensive team.

Halfback John Konek is still on the doubtful list for Saturday's game. Fullback Gil Reich is nursing a thigh injury, but is expected to see action against the Wildcats.

Chuck Wagon Barbecue Dinner To Highlight NWU Homecoming

HOMECOMING day will be observed at Nebraska Wesleyan University Friday, with a full day of activity highlighted by a Chuck Wagon dinner for alums, students and friends in the afternoon, and climaxed by the traditional Wesleyan-Hastings football game Friday night.

The Chuck Wagon committee, headed by Mrs. Howard Wiegers of Lincoln, expects as many as 500 to eat the barbecued spareribs dinner which will be served behind the old gymnasium from 5:30 to 7:30 p.m.

Activities will get under way at 11 a.m. with a homecoming pep rally sponsored by the Pep Club and Student Senate in C. C. White auditorium.

Students will spend the afternoon hours from 1-5 p.m. decorating fraternity and sorority houses for judging in the annual homecoming decorations contest.

The football game in O. N. Magee Memorial stadium will begin at 8 p.m. Crowning of the "W" Club Sweetheart, a traditional homecoming half-time ceremony and a musical extravaganza by the Pride of the Plainsmen band under the direction of Professor Robert Marshall, will highlight halftime ceremonies.

Following the game, informal open houses will be held at the various fraternity and sorority houses. Unaffiliated alums will meet at the Student Union where activities will be in charge of the campus barb organization.

Saturday activities will include fraternity and sorority open houses from 12-3 p.m. and an open house for all alumni at Johnson Hall from 3-5 p.m.

The traditional homecoming dance, sponsored by the Pep Club, will be held at the Turnpike beginning at 9 p.m.

Eight sponsors, chosen at large from the Hastings student body, will join a similar group of Wesleyan students throughout the Friday activities. The 16 students will occupy special 50 yard line seats at the game and will be introduced during the halftime ceremonies.

Texas Pro Footballers Reorganize For Money

DALLAS (AP)—The Dallas Times Herald said Wednesday that ownership of the Dallas Texans of the National Football League is being reorganized in an effort to promote more civic support for this city's first venture into professional football.

The newspaper's account said plans are underway to raise approximately $300,000 to keep the Texans in operation this year and next.

Hawkeye End Is Lineman Of Week

NEW YORK (AP)—In recognition of his work during Iowa's 8-0 victory over Ohio State, Captain Bill Fenton, an end, Wednesday was named Lineman of the Week in the Associated Press Poll of sportswriters and broadcasters.

Fenton, 210-pounder who will be 20 next month, not only inspired his teammates on the field, but pepped up the team at dinner the night before the game.

"Look," he said. "We're a little too happy-go-lucky. I'm tired of getting stepped on. Let's go out and do something about it tomorrow."

Holland's Olympic Rep Asks Team Elimination

AMSTERDAM (AP)—Col. P. W. Scharroo, Dutch representative on the International Olympic Committee, announced Wednesday he would propose the abolition of team sports events in future Olympics.

In a press statement, he said that the Olympic program was too full and needed simplification to bring down the costs of the games and their preparation.

U.S. Horsemen Win

HARRISBURG, Pa. (INS)—The United States team Wednesday racked up its second first place blue ribbon at the Pennsylvania National horse show by winning a tough individual open jumping event in competition with riders from four other nations.

Mexico was second while France took third and fourth places.

Cambridge Trojans Hit St. Cecelia, 26-0

Lincoln Star Special

HASTINGS—Goal-line conscious Peewee Cross scored four touchdowns Wednesday night to lead the Cambridge Trojans to a 26-0 victory over St. Cecelia's of Hastings.

Cross scored from all points with runs of 96, four, 68 and 40 yards.

St. Cecelia struck to the Trojan two-yard line early in the first quarter and drove to the five in the final period, but each time a stubborn Cambridge line met the challenge and held the hosts. The final drive was set up by a 40-yard gallop by Frank Gauthier.

Tackle Jerry Petersen and Linebacker Jim Lemmon sparked the Trojans to their third consecutive win over the Hastings club and Cambridge's seventh win of the season.

Cambridge	7	6	13	0	—26
St. Cecelia	0	0	0	0	— 0

Cambridge scoring: TD—Peewee Cross (4); PAT—Herb Meininger (plunge) and Norman Thompson (pass).

St. Louis May Get Maxim, Moore Bout

NEW YORK (AP)—Jim Norris, president of the International Boxing Club, said Wednesday he "leaned toward" St. Louis and Dec. 10 as the site and date for the proposed light heavyweight title bout between champion Joey Maxim and Archie Moore, the perennial challenger.

Norris met with managers of both fighters for several hours but failed to come up with a definite match. He said St. Louis, Cincinnati, Detroit and Miami were being considered.

Two Contests Top Preppers' Grid Program

Two prep games share the limelight tonight as the 1952 grid season nears its climax.

The York Dukes will travel to Crete to determine the winner of the Central Eight Conference crown, while the Northeast Rockets host the Benson Bunnies in an important battle affecting the Class A ratings.

York with but a lone loss to Class A Columbus on its record is a strong favorite to stop the Cardinals for conference laurels. But the Rockets, who have had their ups-and-downs all season, may find the quick stepping Bunnies out of their reach.

Other 11-man tilts have Guide Rock at Comstock, Sidney at Gering, Hemingford at Hay Springs, and Nebraska City reserves at Louisville.

Six-man action centers around the Sutherland Sailors' journey to Brady. The Sailors hold down the runnerup spot in the six-man ratings after Brady slipped from the runnerup position when it absorbed its first loss of the season at Stapleton.

Macy has an engagement at Bancroft, Sacred Heart of Falls City is at St. Joseph's of Beatrice, Paxton hosts Big Springs, Kenesaw travels to Dannebrog, Edison is at Wilsonville, and Ulysses takes on St. Joseph's at York.

City Tax Collections For Year Reach New Record

97.11 Pct. Total Levy Is Paid Up

City tax collections for the fiscal year ended Oct. 1 have set a new record high both in dollars and percentage wise.

Current collections for the 1951-52 year hit $1,653,628 or 97.11 per cent of the total levy. The previous high was in 1950-51 when $1,247,062 was collected for 97.09 per cent of the levy.

Back taxes collected during the past year amounted to $47,233 as compared to $53,150 collected in the 1950-51 fiscal year.

$2 Million Balance

In his report, City Treasurer Frank J. Miller shows a balance at the end of the year of $2,410,103. Only $235,073 of that amount is in the general fund. Other funds included in the balance are other partly or wholly supported tax funds, $188,234; self sustaining funds, $1,004,817; definite purpose funds, $417,367; special assessment districts, $564,610.

Miller reports September credits of $375,373 and debits of $459,692. He also accounts for $1,534,955 held in securities.

Failure Of Rita To Give Age Brings Hotel Fine

MALAGAR, Spain (AP)—Actress Rita Hayworth got her hotel in trouble with the authorities.

The hotel was fined 200 pesetas ($5).

The charge: Failure to have the guest state her age on the register.

$504 Settlement—District Judge Harry R. Ankeny awarded a lump sum settlement of $504.04 to Ernest K. Franklin in District Court. Franklin charged that he received an electrical shock which burned his hand and arm while employed by the Capital Bridge Company on June 16, 1951. The bridge company and the United States Fidelity and Guaranty Company were defendants in the case.

NIXON APPEALS TO 'FORGOTTEN MEN, WOMEN'

LOS ANGELES (AP)—A fervent appeal to the "forgotten men and women of America" was directed by Sen. Richard Nixon to a nationwide television and radio audience Wednesday night as he urged the election of Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower to lower taxes, increase future opportunity and end the Korean War.

Nixon declared that the inability of the present administration to balance the budget made it impossible for the average family to balance its budget.

"The average American family is caught in a squeeze of high prices on one side and high taxes on the other," the GOP vice presidential nominee declared.

Adding to the tax burden, he said, are dishonesty in the present administration and the high cost of war defense.

Nixon hailed Eisenhower's offer to make a personal trip to Korea as "the words of a man of action."

Parents Day Set For Hastings November 7

HASTINGS, Neb.—(Lincoln Star Special)—Hastings College officials have designated Friday, November 7, as the 16th annual Mom and Dad's Day.

Highlights of the day's activities are a morning welcoming convocation, dormitory open house, pregame pep rally for the Hastings-Wayne State football game, informal reception and an evening of music and drama.

Joan Fontaine To Wed Producer Collier Young

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Producer Collier Young's office, Wednesday, said Young will mary Joan Fontaine, in San Francisco next month.

The exact date was not announced. Only members of the immediate families will attend. Later Miss Fontaine and Young will go to Chicago for the wedding of Young's brother, Gen. William Young, to Franz-Jean Sheridan.

French Post Is Wiped Out By Vietminh

SAIGON, Indochina (AP)—A battalion of Communist-led Vietminh, making the first strong attack in Southern Indochina in recent weeks, has wiped out a French defense post at Ben San, 30 miles north of Saigon, the French command announced Wednesday.

The attack occurred before dawn Tuesday while the Vietminh's major offensive in northwest Indochina slacked off after two weeks of battering against French posts north of the Black River in the mountainous Thai country.

The Ben San garrison of 100 Indochinese suffered 91 casualties—30 killed, 41 missing and 20 wounded. Reinforcements recaptured the post later Tuesday and found it in ruins. There was no mention of Vietminh casualties.

Trieste Held Against Mock Enemy Attack

TRIESTE (AP)—British-American defenders of this corner of Europe successfully held off a mock enemy invasion during a three-day maneuver that ended early Wednesday.

American and British troops conducted their defense in the Mt. Hermanda area along the Isonzo River, where Italians and Austrians fought 12 bitter battles during World War I.

Chief, 6 Cops Dismissed For Beating GIs

HOPKINSVILLE, Ky (AP)—This city Wednesday suspended with pay its police chief and six policemen who figured in a Federal Grand Jury report condemning vice, law enforcement and mistreatment of soldiers.

The Army, meanwhile, confirmed the jury's statement that four enlisted men from Ft. Campbell had been "brutally beaten or killed" by Hopkinsville police.

The jury's finding is "factual and supported by the record," said a statement issued by Maj. Gen. Ridgely Gaither, commanding general of the 11th Airborn Division.

'Ike Chant' In Iowa Arouses HST's Ire

DAVENPORT, Ia. (INS)—President Truman shook his finger angrily, Wednesday, at a group of pre-teen age youngsters in Davenport who were chanting, "We Want Ike" as he spoke to several thousand Iowans.

Shaking his finger in admonition, he said:

"I want you young men over there who are having so much fun being discourteous to the President of the United States to listen to this because it will be a lesson to you."

Six Proposals To Be On State Ballot

By ARCH DONOVAN
Star Staff Writer

Nebraska voters on next Tuesday will have up for consideration in addition to the selection of candidates for office six proposed Constitutional amendments.

Framers of the Constitution indicated that they expected changing circumstances would later require changes in the fundamental law of the state by providing three different methods of submitting amendments to the voters for approval.

They may be submitted by the legislature, by initiative petition or by a constitutional convention. The convention would be made up of delegates from the same districts represented by the legislature so that in fact under the unicameral each session can be a constitutional convention to study and submit proposed amendments.

No Immediate Need

A Legislative Council committee studying the problem decided there is no desperate need for immediate or drastic overhauling of the Constitution but that weakness could be improved by correction of obsolete terminology, clarification of ambiguous phraseology and some changes in its substantive provisions.

At the last session, the legislature considered 11 proposed amendments, rejected five of them and six will be submitted to the voters at the general election.

Rejected were proposals to make the body partisan rather than non-partisan, elimination of the pari-mutuel provisions for betting on horse races, permitting religious and fraternal organizations to operate bingo games, elimination of prohibitions against gambling, repeal limitation on the term of the state treasurer to two terms.

The amendments approved and to be voted on Tuesday are:

1. Creation of a state department of education to be headed by a state board of education of six members who would be selected by popular vote and would have authority to appoint a commissioner of education, who would replace the present elective state superintendent.

Duties and powers of the board would be provided by the legislature and they would serve without pay except expenses. The proposal is the same now in use in 14 states.

2. To reduce the number of times that proposed Constitutional amendments must be published from four to three.

3. To authorize the Legislature to provide a different method of taxing motor vehicles. This is probably the most controversial of the amendments due to a belief by some school people that it might reduce revenue to the schools.

A study by State Auditor Ray Johnson showed that $800,000 was lost to the state in taxes from 1937 to 1945 by purchasers of cars after the March assessement date and when it goes on the tax list the following year it is as a year old car rather than a new one.

Proponents also pointed to the inconvenience to taxpayers and costs of assessment and collection by the present system. Under the proposed system the car owner would pay taxes and license fees in one transaction.

Loss is also occasioned by the thousands of persons who come into the state to work and leave without paying taxes on their motor vehicles. There was no opposition when public hearings were held.

4. Permitting all members of a court, board or commission to have pay increased or diminished at the beginning of a full term of any member. At present changes are made at the expiration of each member's term so that different members would be receiving different compensation.

5. Increase the salary of members of the legislature from $872.09 to $1,250 per year. It was argued that the present salary is a temptation to members to become obligated to lobbvists because salary is not sufficient to meet expenses during the usual five-months session. It was also contended that younger people could not afford to leave their business or profession for the period of sessions at the salary paid.

6. Provides that a constitutional convention, if called, should consist of not more than 100 members. It leaves the number and the manner of election to the legislature.

Election Day To Be Fair Over Most Of Nation

WASHINGTON (AP)—What's the weather outlook for election day?

Fair and mild over most of the country, the U. S. Weather Bureau said Wednesday.

The Weather Bureau pointed out that between now and next Tuesday a lot of things could happen to change this long-range view.

Here's what the Weather Bureau said:

"During the past month the weather has been persistently dry over most of the nation, warm in the West but unseasonably cool in the Midwest and East. Presently there are some indications of a shift in weather pattern.

"The Weather Bureau's preliminary estimate for election day is for fair and mild weather over most of the country, except for showerey weather with seasonable temperatures over the Pacific Northwest and in the Northeast.

"Fair but cool conditions are indicated over the Southeast."

FALSE TEETH That Loosen Need Not Embarrass
Many wearers of false teeth have suffered real embarrassment because their plate dropped, slipped or wobbled at just the wrong time. Do not live in fear of this happening to you. Just sprinkle a little FASTEETH, the alkaline (non-acid) powder, on your plates. Holds false teeth more firmly, so they feel more comfortable. Does not sour. Checks "plate odor" (denture breath). Get FASTEETH at any drug store.

Chest - Red Cross Fund Drive Reaches 88 Per Cent Of Goal

Wednesday's report luncheon at the Chamber of Commerce for the united Community Chest-Red Cross campaign brought in $22,454, making the fund total $411,034—88 per cent of the goal.

A summary of Wednesday's contributions reported is:

Division "A"—advanced gifts—John F. Lawlor, leader, $5,287 or a total of $225,616 toward a goal of $233,826.

Division "C"—classified employees—John M. Spray, leader $17,016 or a total of $174,427 towards a goal of $223,028.

Division "W"—women's residential—Mrs. W. Avon Fraser, leader, $151 or a total of $10,659 towards a goal of $10,798.

The subscriptions are coming in slowly, according to Walter S. Henrion, but all the volunteer workers are covering their assignments. Henrion stated that there are many firms in Division "C" whose employee subscriptions have not yet been reported which when turned in will bring the total up rapidly.

"All in all," said Henrion, "the campaign, while slow in certain divisions, can not help but succeed if the workers will stick to each assignment for there is enough outstanding, based on contributions to the Chest and Red Cross last year to put the campaign over. It will mean hard work but what campaign hasn't required hard work."

Oscars were given out Wednesday to:

John Beaurivage, office equipment; Capt. W. Kennedy, miscellaneous, (both of these being from Division "C," the employees division); Don Kelley, Havelock, of the employees division; and Mrs. Stanley Wentz and Mrs. Earl Deppen of the Women's Division for meeting their quotas.

The employees of 48 more firms or institutions, making a total of 310 firms, met or exceeded their goals Wednesday and are:

Judge Overrules Three Motions In Barone Conviction

OMAHA (AP)—Federal Judge James A. Donohoe Wednesday overruled three motions in connection with the jury conviction of Bennie Barone, 39, of Omaha of giving aid to two burglars.

Attorney Eugene O'Sullivan first asked Judge Donohoe to admit Barone to bail. Then he asked the judge to take the verdict away from the jury on the basis that when the jury convicted Barone on the one count it had already disqualified itself by not finding him guilty on one of two other counts.

Barone also had been charged with transporting some of the bank loot for the burglars from the Laurens, Ia., bank from Sioux City and changing silver into currency for them.

O'Sullivan's motion for a new trial was overruled.

Chaplin Will Seek Re-Entry To U.S.

PARIS (INS)—Charlie Chaplin restated Wednesday his intention of seeking re-entry to the United States in about six months.

U. S. Attorney General James P. McGranery has barred the comedian's re-entry pending an immigration hearing.

Chaplin met with reporters soon after his arrival from London for their Paris premiere of his new film, "Limelight," which U. S. and French officials arranged to attend.

Pope Ponders Consistory At Early Date

Two Americans To Become Cardinals

VATICAN CITY (INS) — Authoritative informants said Wednesday that Pope Pius XII is contemplating holding a Consistory in the near future for the creation of new cardinals.

Pope Pius

One highly reliable vatican informant went so far as to tell International News Service that the pope might make the announcement in mid-November or in his Christmas address.

It is believed that at least two Americans will be elevated as cardinals — Archbishops Richard G. Cushing of Boston and Joseph E. Ritter of St. Louis.

The informant said a third red hat for the United States is a possibility, and Canada "most probably" will get one new cardinal.

According to the informant, the pope may decide to create "a rather large" number of new cardinals, selecting them among archbishops and bishops in the diocesses, rather than among prelates of Curia (vatican officials.)

Twenty-four Vacancies

The College of Cardinals consists of 70 members, but now has 24 vacancies.

It was hinted preliminary preparations for the Consistory already are under way, under the pope's direct supervision.

But it was emphasized the exact time of the Consistory is uncertain.

A month usually is permitted between the announcement and the opening of the Consistory.

The pope would be following tradition if he announced the Consistory next month and it were held before Christmas.

Or, he may follow a pattern he set more than five years ago and make the announcement in December, putting off the consistory until January or February.

Soybean Acreage, Yield Is Doubled

A University of Nebraska researcher said that Nebraska farmers not only have doubled their soybean acreage this year but also have doubled the yield per acre.

Donald G. Hanway said the state had 88-thousand acres of soybeans this year, compared with about half that amount last year. Most of the crop was grown in Dodge, Saunders, Washington and Buffalo Counties, he added.

Hanaway said the average yield per acre this year was 24 bushels, compared with 12 bushels in 1943, and a national yield this year of 19.8 bushels an acre.

The research expert credited improved growing knowledge and better seed varieties for the increased yields but added that "there is still a lot which can be done to improve yields."

Outside Beer License Approved For Spehar

The state liquor commission announced that it has approved an outside beer license to Frank Spehar, Waterloo, on highway No. 275 after hearing protests which were filed against granting the application.

Here is a pleasant little game that will give you a message every day. It is a numerical puzzle designed to spell out your fortune. Count the letters in your first name. If the number of letters is 6 or more, subtract 4. If the number is less than 6, add 3. The result is your key number. Start at the upper left-hand corner of the rectangle and check every one of your key numbers, left to right. Then read the message the letters under the checked figures give you.

ONE MAN'S OPINION By Walter Kiernan

(Distributed by International News Service)

The earliest returns are in . . . Ike carried the faculty and lost the student body at Columbia.

When we get the Princeton count we can call off the rest of the election.

☆ ☆ ☆

One of my weird Republican friends says, "You see! Ike is so popular with the student body they want him back there so they're against him for President."

☆ ☆ ☆

We said, "How about the faculty voting for him?" He said, "If he gets elected, the job of president of Columbia will be open won't it? Naturally the faculty wants to see him leave town . . . president of Columbia is a nice job."

☆ ☆ ☆

One of my wooliest democrat friends takes a different view. He says, "College faculties are capitalist captives and your student is the true liberal . . . As everyone knows, all Republicans are capitalist or capitalist captive and all Democrats are idealistic, pure forward thinking liberals . . . What's so strange?"

DAILY CRYPTOQUOTE

Here's How To Work It

A X Y D L B A A X R
is L O N G F E L L O W

One letter simply stands for another. In this example A is used for the three L's, X for the two O's, etc. Single letters, apostrophies, the length and formation of the words are all hints. Each day the code letters are different.

Stock Mart Slow; Steels, Motors Up

NEW YORK (AP)—A few moderately wide movers stood out by contrast Wednesday in a narrow stock market.

Any price that changed as much as a point was unusual, and many leading issues spent most of the day unchanged.

Steels and motors were favored areas along with utilities. Railroads presented a ragged front, mostly lower, as did chemicals and oils.

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks lost 10 cents, the second straight loss after three successive gains, and stood at $104.80.

Santa Fe was down 1½ at 89¼ to help depress the rail average.

American Gas & Electric shot ahead 2¼ at 61¾ after directors declared a 75-cent regular, a stock dividend of 2½ per cent, and proposed a two for one stock split.

Among higher stocks were Baltimore & Ohio up ¼ at 21⅜, American Telephone ⅝ at 153¾, Aluminum Ltd. ⅝ at 51, U. S. Steel ⅛ at 38⅛ and Union Carbide ½ at 61⅞.

Lower were North Pacific ⅝ at 67⅝, Kennecott Copper ⅝ at 70⅝, Eastman Kodak ⅝ at 42⅝, Amerada Petroleum 2⅛ at 188⅝ and Zenith Radio ⅞ at 81½.

All Grains Close Higher; Corn Leads

CHICAGO (AP) — Strength in corn spilled over into the rest of the grain pits on the Board of Trade in the closing hour Wednesday, leaving all cereals with gains at the finish.

Prior to the late run-up, wheat had held steady while oats and soybeans eased. Oats were off quite a bit for this grain at one time. Throughout the session, however, corn maintained fair-sized advances in sympathy with strength in cash corn.

Wheat closed ½-⅞ higher, corn 1⅛-1⅝ higher, oats ⅛ lower to ⅜ higher, rye ¾-1½ higher, soybeans ¼-1¼ higher and lard 2 to 10 cents a hundred pounds lower.

The advance in cash corn ran from 3 to 4½ cents. New crop corn grading No. 2 yellow sold at $1.61½ to $1.63¾. The price last Friday was $1.51 to $1.54. Corn receipts have continued at a fairly high level, indicating the upturn does not result from any lack in supply.

Oats suffered a sinking spell around midway in the session. The near-by months finished about 1 cent above the day's lows. News that some Canadian oats were headed here was a factor in the slump.

Consumption of crude soybean oil in September totaled 3,229 tank cars compared with 3,709 in August and 2,762 in September, 1951. Visible supply at the end of September amounted to 3,694 cars against 2,226 a year ago. However, visible supply of cotton seed oil was up to 11,545 cars against 7,743 a year ago.

Teachers' Committee Is Told Pro, Con Proposed Tax Amendment

Both sides of the proposed constitutional amendment which would permit the Legislature to revise tax methods for motor vehicles were aired Wednesday night before a meeting of the legislative committee of the Lincoln Teachers Association.

Meeting at the Lincoln School Administration Building, representatives of each of the city's schools heard pro and con statements on Amendment 302, one of six constitutional amendments to be voted on Nov. 4.

John Quinn, representative of the New Car Dealers, who have joined forces with other groups backing the six amendments, urged the local teachers group to take a stand in favor of the measures.

'Tax Evasion'

"I can't imagine the teachers of this state being led into favoring tax evasion," said Quinn, referring to the expressed goal of the amendment which would change the method of assessment of motor vehicles.

Opponents of the measure, Quinn charged, have mis-stated the facts. He said that under the new measure money would not be diverted from schools to roads; and municipalities could tax vehicles as under the present system.

Dr. Archer Burnham, representing the Nebraska State Education Association which turned thumbs down on Amendment 302, disagreed on the "fundamentals of the measure."

'Tax Basis'

"It is not a question of whether motor vehicles and all other property shall continue to escape taxation," he asserted. "It is a question of whether the legislature be empowered to change the tax basis for local sub-divisions of government."

Dr. Leo Black of the State Department of Public Instruction termed the measure "a real change for an improvement in the taxation and school fund situation."

Somewhat critical of the opposition to the amendment, Dr. Black said that "sometimes we educators think we are the only ones who are guardians of the school system."

From another quarter came an answer to why the opposition to Amendment 302. Dr. R. L. Fredstrom, assistant superintendent of schools in Lincoln, said his only fear was a change might narrow the tax base thereby cutting school revenue.

'Little Iffy'

Sen. Thomas Adams, Lincoln, speaking in defense of the amendment, said the opposition's case was a "little iffy."

He said many courses of action could be taken in lowering school funds whether the amendment was passed or not, "but there isn't a man in the Legislature who would harm the schools."

"We sit in session and hear charges of taxation defects repeated over and over again," Adams continued, "but now when we get something that will plug a few of the loopholes, we get a bunch of 'ifs.'"

Presiding over the forum was John Killeen, co-chairman of the LTA legislative committee.

Ortiz Is Sentenced To Four Year Term On Burglary Count

Lawrence Ortiz, 23, 1943 Vine, was sentenced Wednesday in District Court to serve four years in the state penitentiary. The sentence is to run concurrently with the four year sentence he is now serving, Judge John L. Polk ordered.

Ortiz was found guilty of burglarly by a Lancaster County jury two weeks ago. He was charged with stealing a watch on May 20 from a Lincoln apartment.

He was sentenced on July 19 to the penitentiary to serve a four year term—also for burgalry—from Seward County.

The sentence delivered Wednesday will be the fourth Ortiz has served.

He told Judge Polk that he had been sentenced to a two year term in the reformatory, a three to five year term in a Colorado prison, and the four year term he is now serving.

Ortiz said the offenses, burglary and armed robbery, were committed while he was under the influence of alcoholic liquor.

Detroit Couple Is Deported To Britain ForCommieActivity

WASHINGTON (INS) — The Immigration Service announced Wednesday the deportation of a British-born Detroit couple on the ground that both have been active in the Communist Party.

Officials said the two were Allan Raymond Edgar, 37, and his wife, Agnes Ann Mackie Edgar, 46. They were placed on board the S. S. Queen Elizabeth Wednesday for deportation to their native England.

Officials said Edgar, an electrician, and his wife entered the U. S. in Boston in 1948. They were arrested at Detroit Dec. 13, 1949. Both were described as admitted Communists.

Edgar was said to be a group leader with the Communists in Birkenhead, Eng., during the time his wife was an assistant literature agent for the Communists.

Britain Will Lend U.S. Large Aluminum Supply

LONDON (Thursday — (INS) —Britain announced Wednesday that it will lend the United States 10,000 metric tons of aluminum in December and another 10,000 tons in the first quarter of 1953.

This will bring to 45,000 tons the amount of aluminum loaned the U. S. since 1951.

Halloween Party

A halloween party for members of the National Association of Postal Supervisors was given by the Women's Auxiliary of the organization Wednesday evening at the YMCA. About 50 were present for the program. In charge was Mrs. Fred Lingenfelder, assisted by Mrs. James Hallstrom and Mrs. Arthur Beckman.

Elgin Shows Drop In Net Earnings

ELGIN, Ill. (INS)—Elgin National Watch Co., reported net earnings of $900,624 for the 10 accounting periods ended Oct. 4. This compares with earnings of $1,195,671 for the same period of last year.

J. G. Shennan, president, said much of the decline in earnings was attributable to heavy non-recurring expenses in connection with expansion.

Consolidated sales were $33,343,982, compared to $29,497,022 for the 10 periods a year ago.

Net earnings on the basis of 840,000 share currently outstanding were $1.07 a share compared with $1.42 for the comparable 10 period of 1951.

Directors of the company declared a quarterly dividend of 15 cents per share on capital shares, together with a year-end dividend of 5 per cent on capital shares.

U.S. Casualty Toll Heaviest In Almost Year

WASHINGTON (INS) — The Pentagon reported Wednesday the highest seven-day toll of American casualties in Korea in almost a year and the grim forecast was for a list almost twice as large next week.

Wednesday's summary, the last to be issued before elections, contained 1,278 U. S. casualties, bringing the 28-month total for the war to 123,395 men killed, wounded or missing.

The list, including servicemen whose next-of-kin were notified during the seven days up to last Friday, is the highest since 1,712 casualties were reported for the week ending Nov. 9, 1951. It was also 300 above last Wednesday's announcement.

Meanwhile, Pentagon sources warned that next week's toll may be about 2,000, twice the seven-day average for the Korean War. This will bear further evidence of the savage fighting that has been taking place in recent weeks.

However, Defense Department and Army spokesmen flatly denied that the Pentagon is purposely waiting until after the election to make such a heavy toll public. They declared they are sticking to the usual reporting methods—politics or not.

Wednesday's list counted 981 casualties in the Army, 218 in the Marine Corps, 17 in the Navy and two in the Air Force. Of all these, 94 died, compared with 143 dead in the previous week's smaller overall increase.

The war has now taken the lives of 21,471 U. S. servicemen. Of these 19,267 were killed in action, 1,997 died of wounds and 204 are among the 12,868 listed as missing.

Total United Nations casualties have reach about 400,000, with U. S. and South Korean troops bearing theb runt of it. The Chinese and North Korean Communists are believed to have suffered 1,600,000 casualties.

Air Base Commander, Engineer Are Honored

Chamber of Commerce director, city officials and various committee members who worked on reactivation of the Lincoln Air Base were hosts Wednesday noon at a dinner honoring the new base commander, Lt. Col. Frank R. Crabtree, and the project engineer, Maj. Robert Ednie.

Official Lincoln representatives were Mayor Victor E. Anderson, C. W. D. Kinsey, chairman of the Citizens Air Base Committee; Sam C. Waugh, chairman of the Reactivation Fund Committee; Max Kier, chairman of the Air Base Coordinating Council, and Charles T. Stuart, chairman of the Airports Construction sub-committee. Other business men who handled early negotiations with Air Force officials also attended.

Chamber President Emmett Junge was in charge of the meeting during which Ed C. Welsh of the Chamber's Contact Club, received a certificate from Vice President Carl Ganz for securing 25 new senior members.

16-Year-Old Sentenced On Assault Conviction

A 16-year-old Lincoln boy was sentenced by Judge John L. Polk to serve a concurrent sentence with his commitment at the Kearney Industrial School for Boys Wednesday in District Court.

The youth pleaded guilty to a charge of assault and battery. He was found guilty of the charge in Municipal Court and fined $100 and court costs. The case was appealed from the lower court.

The boy was committed to Kearney for breaking windows.

Farm Supports Will Continue Under GOP Claims Eisenhower

IMPERIAL, Neb. (AP)—Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower Wednesday branded as "false" the reports which he said are being circulated among farmers "that Republicans will reduce agricultural income by cancelling farm supports." He said it's all part of an administration attempt "to create fear among our people."

In a telegram addressed to Herbert Hughes, Imperial, chairman of the Republican Farm Council, Eisenhower said that "as this campaign draws to a close, the administration candidates have, and will continue to resort to the same tactics of twisted and false charges which stamped their campaign in 1948. And you can be sure there will be more to come."

At Plainfield, Ia., Howard Roach, chairman of the Iowa GOP Farm Council, reported receipt of a similar telegram. He said he notified Eisenhower several days ago that a Democratic whispering campaign among farmers had spread into Iowa. He said letters circulated under the letterhead of the Committee for Agricultural Progress, with headquarters in Chicago, implied "that the U. S. farm program would not fare so well" if the Democrats were not re-elected.

Eisenhower's wire to Hughes said.

"I have said repeatedly that the Republican Party will maintain the present farm act which provides for price supports at 90 per cent of parity on basic commodities. We will strengthen farm legislation, first, to help farmers get their full fair share of the national income, and second, we will do this without regimenting American farmers under stifling federal controls. Our program was written by farmers for farmers.

"Farm prices are declining. This decline is occurring under the Administration which in desperation is trying to blame it on somebody else. This price decline squeezes farmers whose production costs are still rising under the deliberate inflationary policy of the administration."

Beatrice Times Sold To Marvin

BEATRICE, Neb. (AP)—The purchase of the Beatrice Morning Times by E. M. Marvin, owner and publisher of the Beatrice Sun was announced Wednesday night.

Marvin in a statement said:

"B. R. Rothenberger, managing editor of the Beatrice Times, will announce in the Thursday morning issue that the newspaper will changes hands on Nov. 28, E. M. Marvin, owner and publisher of the Beatrice Sun, being the purchaser. The sale includes all the physical and other assets of the morning newspaper."

Marvin said that a partnership will be formed consisting of himself and his sons, Robert and George Marvin, to take ownership of both Times and Sun, and evening paper.

"Newspaper consolidation is the order of the day," Marvin commented.

County Coroner Found Guilty Of Dope Trade

MINNEAPOLIS (INS)—An all-male federal district court jury in Minneapolis Wednesday found Dr. Russell D. Heim, coroner of Hennepin County, guilty of 229 charges of narcotics violations.

Federal Judge Gunnar H. Nordbye said Dr. Heim would be sentenced Friday. Heim was freed on $10,000 bond and faces a possible sentence of up to 2,300 years and $273,000 in fines.

The coroner was charged with writing false prescriptions and given them to addicts. One hundred witnesses testified during the six-day trial.

Wanted Circulars Out For Escapee From County Jail

Wanted circulars for Charles W. Moberg, 41, who escaped from the Lancaster County Jail Thursday night or early Friday morning, will be sent to sheriffs and police departments throughout the U. S., according to Sheriff Merle Karnopp Wednesday.

No trace of Moberg, being held on a statutory rape charge, has been reported since the time of his escape. Jack Arlen, who made the break with Moberg, was arrested Friday afternoon in Omaha.

"We'll send out the majority of the circulars to the states nearest the Nebraska area," Karnopp said.

The 700 wanted circulars may be just a start, according to Sheriff Karnopp.

The circular describes Moberg as follows: "age, 41; height, five feet, 11½ inches; weight, 145 pounds; brown hair; blue eyes, wears glasses; smooth talker."

Moberg is "considered dangerous," the circular warns.

Charles Sweet, At 96, Is Believed To Be Oldest Voter

At the age of 96, Charles A. Sweet of 2219 St. Mary's St., probably will be Lancaster County's oldest voter this year, according to a survey made by the University of Nebraska Young Republicans.

Sweet first voted on his 21st birthday in 1876 in the contest between Benjamin Harrison and Rutherford B. Hayes. He voted for the former.

Sweet, who has voted for 75 years, has lived in Nebraska for 78 years.

The youngest voter on the University campus is Barbara Lucas of Omaha who will be 21 on Oct. 29, the survey showed.

Ship Abandoned In Atlantic Storm

ST. JOHN'S, Nfld. (AP) — Ten crew members abandoned the American fishing trawler Newton Wednesday and clambered aboard another trawler in Newfoundland's worst storm of the season. North Atlantic seas were whipping into a white fury.

First attempts to abandon the Boston-based vessel failed when mountainous waves splintered a lifeboat. Then the St. Nicholas, maneuvering to leeward, made a dash to her side and the crew was pulled aboard.

No injuries were reported.

Cycle Attack On Love Rival Brings Sentence

LONDON (AP) —Douglas Chadwick was sentenced Wednesday to three months in jail for attack with a motorcycle on his rival in love.

The 31-year-old radio engineer admitted he rammed into the cycle of Stanley E. Stevens, when he spotted comely Mary Godbert, 26, riding with him. Stevens and Miss Godbert had to be patched up in a hospital.

Pennsylvania produces more coal than any other of the United States.

Massa Is Ordered Not To Drive Car For Year

Delbert Massa Jr., 24, Grand Hotel, was placed on one year's probation by District Judge John L. Polk and ordered not to drive a car for one year.

Massa pleaded guilty to a charge of driving a car while his driver's license was suspended.

The courtroom was strangely silent as the case progressed. Massa, a deaf mute, testified by sign language which was interpreted by his attorney and a friend.

Telephone Rate Hike Considered

The State Railway Commission has under consideration the request of Nebraska Continental Telephone Company for a rate increase.

Largest cities served by the company are Kearney and Columbus, where the present rate is $4.25 a month for one-party residence service, and $6.50 for one-party business lines.

The proposed rate for the two cities is $4.90 for one-party residence service and $8.50 for one-party business phones.

The main hearing was held July 7. At a continuation this week, the commission received additional exhibits prepared by the company, and cross-examined company spokesmen on exhibits submitted in July.
